CHARITY AUCTION

Two years ago, Marg Symes completed a tremendous solo walk raising vital funds and awareness for the Royal Flying Doctor Service Wellbeing Place in Broken Hill.

This year, Marg is replicating the journey from Tibooburra to Broken Hill, but this time in the company of Alli Nevill.

Once they complete their 300 kilometre walk, Marg and Alli will host a charity auction to raise funds for the Mental Health, Wellbeing, Alcohol and Other Drug programs which the RFDS Wellbeing Place provide to Broken Hill and 18 outreach clinics across Far West.

The auction will be held at The Demo Club in Broken Hill on Saturday 9 December from 6.30pm onwards.

Local businesses have kindly donated items to the charity auction which will be facilitated by Nutrien Ag Solutions. Auction items include X2 Mundi Mundi Bash weekend tickets, painted windmill blades by local artists Amanda Johnson, Clark Barrett and Trudi Rennie, along with a signed Taylor Walker guernsey.

All the money raised goes directly back to The Wellbeing Place.
