ORDINARY MEETING OF THE COUNCIL

April 29, 2015

BROKEN HILL CITY COUNCIL REPORT NO. 95/15

SUBJECT: LGNSW RURAL/REGIONAL FORUM

11/364

Recommendation

That Broken Hill City Council Report No. 95/15 dated April 29, 2015, be received.

That Broken Hill Council determine attendance at the Regional/Rural workshop on Thursday 4 June 2015.

Executive Summary:

The purpose of this report is to advise Council that LGNSW will be holding a Rural/Regional workshop on Thursday 4 June 2015 in Sydney and allow Council to determine attendance.

Report:

To ensure that LGNSW is equipped to connect with the issues facing rural and regional councils and in keeping with their commitment prior to one association being formed, LGNSW propose to hold a one day workshop on rural and regional issues.

In their correspondence, LGNSW have requested that Councils identify the top three issues that Councils would like to see discussed at the workshop.

It is recommended that the following issues be raised:

1. Funding, in particular Financial Assistance Grants (FAG) and redistribution opportunities;
2. Regional Development;
3. Integrated Planning and Reporting Framework – State Government ownership/contribution;
4. Water security

Strategic Direction:

Aligns with Council's Delivery Program, Key Direction 5: Our Leadership – Objective 5.2.3; to build and foster meaningful relationships and strategic networks in order to strongly advocate our local interests with other stakeholders for the future benefit of Broken Hill.

Financial Implications:

Costs associated with this workshop will be funded from existing budgets.
