BROKEN HILL CITY COUNCIL REPORT NO. 190/21

SUBJECT: ADOPTION OF DRAFT WORKPLACE COVID-19 VACCINATION
POLICY D21/50400

Recommendation

1. That Broken Hill City Council Report No. 190/21 dated November 18, 2021, be received.
2. That Council adopts the draft Workplace COVID-19 Vaccination Policy as an Operational Employee Policy of Council.

Executive Summary:

The purpose of the Workplace COVID-19 Policy is to facilitate the protection of the health and safety of all workers who attend any of Council's workplaces by requiring all persons to be fully vaccinated against COVID-19.

Council already has in place a range of preventative measures for employees and customers designed to help prevent the spread of COVID-19 in accordance with Council's Business Continuity Policy (attached for reference).

However, as per Federal Government Advice, NSW State Government Chief Medical Officer and the Australian Medical Association, vaccines are the main form of protection from serious COVID-19 illness.

As at the time of writing this report 98.80% of Council's staff are fully vaccinated, which shows a tremendous effort in relation to ensuring the safety of Council's workforce, the Broken Hill Community, the ongoing business continuity of Council's operations as well as support and acceptance in Council's recommended mandatory vaccination position. This is closely aligned to the current vaccination rate of Broken Hill which as of 19 November 2021, is 87.2% fully vaccinated for 12+ years.

The draft Workplace COVID-19 Policy has been through a process of employee consultation; has been reviewed and approved by Council's Workplace Health & Safety Committee; and reviewed and approved by Council's Workplace Consultative Committee. The United Services Union was also requested to provide feedback on the draft policy.

Following the above approval process, the draft Workplace COVID-19 Vaccination Policy is now presented to Council for adoption.

Report:

Council's priority is to ensure we provide our people with a safe secure, and healthy workplace, and to minimise any health and safety impact to our customers and the wider community in which we operate.

COVID-19 continues to pose a significant threat to us all. We have a responsibility to continue to take all reasonable steps to help mitigate the health and safety risks posed by this pandemic. Broadly speaking, our primary duty is to not put people at risk and ensure (as far as practicable) the health and safety of Council employees and members of the public in carrying out our business.

Council already has in place a range of preventative measures for employees and customers designed to help prevent the spread of COVID-19 in accordance with Council's Business Continuity Policy (attached for reference).

However, as per Federal Government Advice, NSW State Government Chief Medical Officer and the Australian Medical Association, vaccines are the main form of protection from serious COVID-19 illness.

This is closely aligned to the current vaccination rate of Broken Hill which as of 19 November 2021, is 87.2% fully vaccinated for 12+ years.

In addition, this Policy outlines Council's obligations in accordance with the Work Health and Safety Act 2011.

The purpose of this policy is to facilitate the protection of the health and safety of all workers who attend any of Council's workplaces by requiring all such persons to be fully vaccinated against COVID-19.

This policy applies to any visitors as well as all workers (permanent or casual), contractors, labour hire personnel, interns or secondees and volunteers who may be performing work at any of Council's workplaces (Workers).

Council has continued to assess the risks associated with COVID-19 to our employees across our business and have escalated and de-escalated control measure were appropriate to ensure the protection of staff, the community and most importantly the ongoing Business Continuity of Council.

As a result, where there is a heightened risk of infection due to the nature of the work performed and regular contact with others, Council will, in these circumstances, require workers to be Fully Vaccinated by 1 January 2022 with certain exceptions to apply as per the attached Draft Policy.

Staff Consultation

Council's consultation process has included the below processes:

- All current employees provided access to the draft policy for review and provide feedback.
- Policy was provided to both the Workplace Health & Safety Committee and Workplace Consultative Committee for review and to provide feedback.

- All feedback was presented for review and discussion to both internal employee committees at monthly meetings held Thursday 18 November 2021.

1. INTRODUCTION

At Broken Hill City Council ('Council'), our priority is to ensure we provide our people with a safe secure, and healthy workplace, and to minimise any health and safety impact to our customers and the wider community in which we operate.

COVID-19 continues to pose a significant threat to us all. We have a responsibility to continue to take all reasonable steps to help mitigate the health and safety risks posed by this pandemic. Broadly speaking, our primary duty is to not put people at risk and ensure (as far as practicable) the health and safety of Council employees and members of the public in carrying out our business.

Council already has in place a range of preventative measures for our employees and customers designed to help prevent the spread of COVID-19. However, vaccines are the main form of protection from serious COVID-19 illness.

This Policy outlines Council's obligations in accordance with the Work Health and Safety Act 2011.

2. POLICY OBJECTIVE

The purpose of this policy is to facilitate the protection of the health and safety of all workers who attend any of Council's workplaces by requiring all such persons to be fully vaccinated against COVID-19.

3. POLICY SCOPE

This policy applies to any visitors as well as all workers (permanent or casual), contractors, labour hire personnel, interns or secondees and volunteers who may be performing work at any of Council's workplaces (Workers).

Council will be continuously monitoring and assessing the operation of this policy in line with the latest information from Government and health authorities. Council may amend, withdraw, or replace this policy from time to time at its sole discretion.

This policy applies with immediate effect, noting the interim arrangements as set out below.

4. POLICY STATEMENT

Council has continued to assess the risks associated with COVID-19 to our employees across our business. We have decided that where there is a heightened risk of infection due to the nature of the work performed and regular contact with others, Council will, in these circumstances, require workers to be Fully Vaccinated by 1 January 2022.

Broadly, this includes roles where:

- You frequently interact with customers and other members of the public;
- You are required to work in high-risk locations with vulnerable persons or in locations that might lead to COVID-19 outbreaks if infected people come into contact with members of public (e.g. medical facilities, aged care centres, schools, shopping centres, indigenous communities);
- You are required to attend work (i.e. you cannot work from home) and work in close proximity with other employees or customers;
- Government/health regulations stipulate that you must be vaccinated to enter a location or premises.

4.1. Requirement to be vaccinated

As of 1 January 2022, it will be a requirement of attending any Council worksite that any Worker must be Fully Vaccinated against COVID-19, unless they have been granted an exemption by Council in accordance with this policy. Vaccination must be undertaken on the advice of an accredited health practitioner (including health practitioners at any authorised COVID-19 vaccination centres).

All Workers will be required to provide evidence acceptable to Council of being Fully Vaccinated. Council will accept for these purposes a copy of your Immunisation History Statement, or alternatively a copy of your COVID-19 Digital Certificate (both of which can be obtained through your MyGov account). These documents should be emailed to humanresources@brokenhill.nsw.gov.au. If you require assistance in obtaining this evidence, please contact humanresources@brokenhill.nsw.gov.com.au

4.2. Exemptions

Council understands that not all Workers will be able to receive an Approved Vaccine, including due to medical conditions for which there is a Recognised Contraindication to receiving any of the Approved Vaccines.

Any workers who have such a medical condition are required to provide medical evidence satisfactory to Council of the said medical condition and the reason for which they are unable to receive any of the Approved Vaccines. Any medical certificate provided in this respect must be issued by a duly qualified medical practitioner with a current and valid registration and must clearly identify the medical condition and specify that the Worker's medical condition gives rise to a Recognised Medical Contraindication in respect of all Approved Vaccines. Council reserves the right to contact the issuing medical practitioner to verify the authenticity of any such medical certificates.

Any Worker who is unable to become Fully Vaccinated for any other reason, including by reason of a sincerely held religious belief, religious practice, or religious observance, must email humanresources@brokenhill.nsw.gov.au prior to 1 January 2022 and/or commencing work for Council. Requests for an exemption will be considered by Council on a case-by-case basis.

In order to ensure the health and safety of Workers at Council's workplaces, individuals granted an exemption may be subject to conditions or restrictions related to their job, facility access and/or safety requirements (e.g., masking).

4.3. Information provided to Council

Any information provided to Council in accordance with this policy will be treated confidentially by Council, and will be used only for determining compliance with this policy, and to enable Council to undertake statistical analysis with respect to vaccine coverage amongst its workforce.

Any Worker who provides information to Council in accordance with this policy is expected to provide accurate and truthful information to Council. Failure to do so will be considered serious misconduct and may result in termination of employment.

All information recorded will be kept in accordance with Council's Record Management Policy and destroyed as per the General Retention and Disposal Authority: Local Government Records (GA39).

4.4. Obtaining information about vaccination

We advise you in the first instance to consult with your accredited health practitioner about any concerns you may have in relation to receiving an Approved Vaccine, including the process for obtaining an Approved Vaccine.

Information about making a booking to receive an Approved Vaccine can be found:

4.5. Financial assistance

Council will support employees to be vaccinated in line with local health guidelines, laws, and safety advice.

For permanent employees covered by Council's Consent Award and the COVID-19 Splinter Award, this includes paid time off to attend booked vaccination appointments and (where necessary) paid sick/carer's and COVID-19 special leave.

4.6. Compliance

Whilst Council expects our employees will comply with what is a reasonable health and safety requirement, we cannot "force" an employee to be vaccinated. However, an ongoing refusal to comply may lead to termination of employment.

Report:

On 24 August 2021, the Office of Local Government (OLG) issued consultation draft Guidelines for new risk management and internal audit framework for Councils and Joint Organisations in NSW.

Consultation on the draft guidelines is open for a three-month period closing 26 November 2021 during which time Council's Audit, Risk and Improvement Committee reviewed the draft guidelines and formulated a draft submission to the Office of Local Government, for approval by Council.

Sections 428A and 428B of the Local Government Act 1993 (the Act) have been commenced (transitional provisions of the Local Government Amendment (Governance and Planning) Bill 2016 (NSW) Schedule 1 Amendment of Local Government Act 1993), stipulates that all NSW Councils, County Councils and Joint Organisations must have either appointed an Audit, Risk and Improvement Committee or entered into an arrangement with another Council or Joint Organisation to share an Audit, Risk and Improvement Committee by 4 June 2022.

The Audit, Risk and Improvement Committee must keep under review the following aspects of the Council's operations:

- (a) compliance,
- (b) risk management,
- (c) fraud control,
- (d) financial management,
- (e) governance,
- (f) implementation of the strategic plan, delivery program and strategies,
- (g) service reviews,
- (h) collection of performance measurement data by the council.
- (i) any other matters prescribed by the regulations.

The Committee is also to provide information to the Council for the purpose of improving the Council's performance of its functions.

Council has been operating an Audit Committee since 2013 following Council's adoption of an Audit Committee Charter on 26 June 2013. The Audit Committee was responsible for providing guidance to Council in relation to the following financial, governance and risk management operations:

1. Keep under review the effectiveness of the Council's internal controls and risk management systems;
2. Review and recommend the approval, where appropriate, of statements to be included in the Annual Report concerning internal controls and risk management
3. Review the effectiveness of the Council's fraud protection and protected disclosure procedures and systems

The Committee has evolved into the Audit, Risk and Improvement Committee during its eight years of operation due to the introduction of the Local Government Amendment (Governance and Planning) Bill 2016 (NSW).

The current Audit, Risk and Improvement Committee provides information to the Council for the purpose of improving the Council's performance of its functions. The Committee keeps under review the following aspects of Council's operations:

- a) Compliance
- b) Risk Management
- c) Fraud Control
- d) Financial Management
- e) Governance
- f) Implementation of Council's Strategic Plan, Delivery Program and Strategies
- g) Service Reviews
- h) Collection of performance measurement data by Council
- i) Any other matters prescribed by the regulations.

Along with reviewing Council's operations, a number of internal audits have been undertaken over the past few years by an independent auditing firm, under the guidance of the Audit, Risk and Improvement Committee. The internal audits have reviewed various high-risk functions of Council and recommendations for improvement have been provided to the Audit, Risk and Improvement Committee. Council management is committed to implementing all recommendations put forward to the Committee to enhance the performance of Council's operations and the provision of services to the community.

The Audit, Risk and Improvement Committee conducted the biennial review of its Charter at its meeting held 19 August 2021 where the Committee endorsed the Charter for Council's consideration of adoption. Council subsequently adopted the Charter at its Ordinary Meeting held 29 September 2021 (as per Council Minute 46644 above).

Following the Audit, Risk and Improvement Committee Meeting held on 19 August 2021, the Office of Local Government issued a Circular to Councils on 24 August 2021, containing the consultation draft guidelines for new risk management and internal audit framework for Councils and Joint Organisations in NSW.

The consultation draft guidelines were presented to Council's Ordinary Meeting held 29 September 2021 and Council resolved that Council's Audit, Risk and Improvement Committee formulate a submission to the Office of Local Government for presentation to Council for adoption.

The Audit, Risk and Improvement Committee workshopped the consultation draft guidelines at its meeting held 20 October 2021 to ascertain its key comments for a draft submission. The draft submission was formulated based on those comments and was presented to the Audit, Risk and Improvement Committee Meeting held 18 November 2021 for endorsement for presentation to the Ordinary Council Meeting held 24 November 2021 for adoption by Council. The final submission is required to be lodged with the Office of Local Government on 25/26 November 2021.

The OLG Circular and consultation draft guidelines are attached, along with the draft submission for adoption by Council.

New risk management and internal audit framework for councils and joint organisations

What's new or changing

- Sections 428A and 428B of the Local Government Act 1993 (the Act) have been commenced. Under section 428A, all councils (including county councils) and joint organisations are required to have an audit risk and improvement committee (ARIC). Councils and joint organisations are permitted under section 428B to enter into arrangements with other councils or joint organisations to share ARICs.
- Under the transitional provisions of the Act, all councils (including county councils) and joint organisations must have either appointed an ARIC or entered into an arrangement with another council or joint organisation to share an ARIC before 4 June 2022.
- The Office of Local Government (OLG) will be issuing Guidelines for Risk Management and Internal Audit for Local Councils in NSW to guide the operations of ARICs and to require councils to have a risk management framework and internal audit function to support and inform their operations.
- OLG has issued a draft of the Guidelines for a three-month consultation period. These have been developed based on the feedback received in response to OLG's New Risk Management and Internal Audit Framework for Local Councils in NSW discussion paper issued in September 2019.
- Councils, ARIC members and internal audit practitioners are encouraged to provide comment on the draft Guidelines.

What this will mean for your council

- As of 4 June 2022, all councils (including county councils) and joint organisations must have an ARIC. As noted above, councils and joint organisations may enter into arrangements to share ARICs.
- Most councils already have an ARIC and will not need to take any further action to comply with section 428A.
- Councils or joint organisations that do not currently have an ARIC should take immediate steps to ensure they have one before 4 June 2022. This may include talking to a neighbouring council or their joint organisation about entering into an arrangement to share an ARIC.

- Under the proposed Guidelines, councils and joint organisations are not required to establish a risk management framework and internal audit function that complies with the Guidelines until 30 June 2024. However, councils and joint organisations should start taking steps to establish a risk management framework and internal audit function or to transition their existing risk management and internal audit arrangements to comply with the Guidelines.
- The proposed Guidelines set out membership requirements for ARICs. Councils and joint organisations are not required to comply with these requirements until June 2027. This will allow councils and joint organisations five years to transition the membership of their existing ARICs to comply with the new requirements.
- The proposed Guidelines are available on OLG's website at here. Information about the changes to the original model proposed in the discussion paper is also available on OLG's website.
- OLG is seeking the views of councils and others on the proposed Guidelines. Councils should inform their ARICs about the draft Guidelines to give ARIC members the opportunity to provide comment or to have input into the council's comment on the draft Guidelines.
- Submissions may be made to olg@olg.nsw.gov.au, labelled 'Draft risk management and internal audit guidelines' and marked to the attention of OLG's Council Governance Team.
- Submissions should be made before COB 26 November 2021.

Key points

- Under section 428A of the Act, councils and joint organisations must appoint an ARIC to keep under review the following aspects of their operations:
 - compliance,
 - risk management,
 - fraud control,
 - financial management,
 - governance,
 - implementation of the community strategic plan, delivery program and strategies,
 - service reviews,
 - collection of performance measurement data by the council,
 - any other matters prescribed by the regulations.
- ARICs must also provide information to councils and joint organisations for the purpose of improving their performance.

Where to go for further information

- The draft Guidelines and a summary of the changes to the previously proposed model are available on OLG's website at www.olg.nsw.gov.au.

Background

Background

The Local Government Act 1993 ('Local Government Act') and the Local Government (General) Regulation 2005 ('Local Government Regulation') require each council in NSW to have:

- an audit, risk and improvement committee that continuously reviews and provides independent advice to the council on how it is functioning and managing risk
- a robust risk management framework that accurately identifies and mitigates the risks facing the council and its operations, and
- an effective internal audit function that provides independent advice as to whether the council is functioning effectively and the council's internal controls to manage risk are working.

These three mandatory governance mechanisms are a vital part of the NSW Government's plan to ensure that councils are doing things the best way they can for their communities and are on track to delivering their community's goals and objectives.

Communities themselves will ultimately be the greatest beneficiaries.

If implemented effectively, audit, risk and improvement committees, risk management and internal audit will lead to councils:

- achieving their strategic objectives in the most efficient, effective and economical manner
- having better and more efficient levels of service delivery
- having increased accountability and transparency
- achieving better decision-making and having the confidence to make difficult decisions
- having increased financial stability
- achieving and maintaining compliance with all laws, regulations, internal policies and procedures, and
- better safeguarding their public assets.

Purpose

These guidelines have been developed to assist councils, county councils and joint organisations to comply with statutory requirements under the Local Government Act and Local Government Regulation.

They also seek to strengthen risk management and internal audit practices in NSW councils by setting a minimum standard that reflects a 'best practice' approach.

The Guidelines have been issued under the Local Government Regulation (clause #tbc) which confers on the Secretary of the Department of Planning, Industry and Environment, ('Secretary DPIE'), the power to issue guidelines on the appointment and operation of audit, risk and improvement committees and the implementation by councils, county councils and joint organisations of risk management and internal audit activities.

Councils are required under the Local Government Regulation to comply with these Guidelines when establishing and operating their audit, risk and improvement committees, risk management framework and internal audit functions.

They replace the NSW Government's Internal Audit Guidelines for Local Government in NSW issued in 2010.

The three core requirements outlined in the Guidelines reflect international standards and the recommendations and opinions of internal audit practitioners, councils, councillors, audit, risk and improvement committee members, risk management practitioners, government agencies, experts and community members.

They are also informed by practices in other Australian jurisdictions and give effect to the recommendations of the:

- Independent Commission Against Corruption in its inquiries into Burwood Council (2011) and Botany Bay Council (2017)

- Local Government Acts Taskforce in its review of the Local Government Act 1993 (2013)
- Independent Local Government Review Panel in its Revitalising Local Government inquiry (2013), and
- various performance audits and other reviews conducted by the NSW Auditor-General since 2010.

Based on these recommendations:

- the core requirements outlined in the Guidelines relating to the operation of a council's audit, risk and improvement committee have been modelled on the Internal Audit and Risk Management Policy for the General Government Sector (TPP 20-08) developed by NSW Treasury and best practice in the public and private sectors
- the core requirements relating to risk management have been modelled on the current Australian risk management standard, AS/NZS ISO 31000:2018 Risk Management – Guidelines, and
- the core requirements relating to a council's internal audit function have been modelled on the Institute of Internal Auditors (IIA) International Standards for the Professional Practice of Internal Auditing (the 'International Professional Practices Framework') and best practice in the public and private sectors.

The framework balances these professional standards and best practice approaches with the unique structure, needs and operating environments of metropolitan, regional and rural councils, county councils and joint organisations across NSW.

The release of these Guidelines follows an extensive consultation process. The Office of Local Government thanks all the individuals, councils and bodies involved in the development of the risk management and internal audit regulatory framework.

Further resources

There has been a wide range of information and guidance developed in recent times by government agencies, experts, practitioners and other bodies to help organisations establish effective audit, risk and improvement committees, risk management frameworks and internal audit functions.

As a starting point, a list of further resources has been included at the end of each core requirement. These resources provide practical information and tools such as examples, templates, checklists and sample documents that councils may find useful when implementing these Guidelines.

Terminology

When a joint organisation is applying these Guidelines, it should substitute the term "council" for "joint organisation", "governing body" for "board", "chairperson" for "mayor", "voting representative" for "councillor" and "executive officer" for "general manager" and "annual report" for "annual performance statement", where appropriate.

Where a county council is applying these guidelines, it should substitute the terms "county council" for "council" and "member" for "councillor", where appropriate.

Statutory framework

The Local Government Act and Local Government Regulation provide the statutory foundations and prescribe the desired outcomes for councils' audit, risk and improvement committees, risk management frameworks and internal audit functions.

Relevant provisions of the Local Government Act and Local Government Regulation are detailed below.

Guiding principles of local government

The guiding principles of the Local Government Act (sections 8A, 8B and 8C) require each council to carry out its functions in a way that provides the best possible value for residents and ratepayers.

The guiding principles also specify that councils are to:

- spend money responsibly and sustainably, and align general revenue and expenses
- invest in responsible and sustainable infrastructure for the benefit of the local community
- effectively manage their finances and assets and have sound policies and processes for performance management and reporting, asset maintenance and enhancement, funding decisions, and risk management practices
- ensure the current generation funds the cost of its services and achieves intergenerational equity, and
- manage risks to the local community, area or council effectively and proactively.

Role of the governing body

To achieve these guiding principles, the Local Government Act (section 223) provides that the role and responsibilities of the governing body include:

- directing and controlling the affairs of the council in accordance with the Local Government Act

- ensuring, as far as possible, the financial sustainability of the council
- ensuring, as far as possible, that the council complies with the guiding principles of the Local Government Act
- keeping the performance of the council under review
- making the decisions necessary to ensure the council properly exercises its regulatory functions, and
- being responsible for ensuring that the council acts honestly, efficiently and appropriately.

Role of the general manager

The Local Government Act (section 335) provides that the general manager is responsible for:

- conducting the day-to-day management of the council in accordance with the strategic plans, programs, strategies and policies of the council – this includes establishing the council's organisational structure and appointing and dismissing council staff (section 332)
- implementing, without undue delay, the lawful decisions of the council
- advising the governing body on the development and implementation of the council's plans, programs, strategies and policies, and
- ensuring that the mayor and other councillors are given timely information and advice and the administrative and professional support necessary to effectively discharge their functions.

The Local Government Regulation (clause 209) also requires the general manager to ensure that:

- the council complies with all legal financial obligations, including the keeping of accounting records
- effective measures are taken to secure the effective, efficient and economical management of financial operations within each division of the council's administration

- authorised and recorded procedures are established to provide effective control over the council's assets, liabilities, revenue and expenditure and secure the accuracy of the accounting records, and
- lines of authority and the responsibilities of members of the council's staff for related tasks are clearly defined.

Role of a joint organisation

The Local Government Act establishes joint organisations as a strategic regional body of councils.

The role and responsibilities of a joint organisation under the Local Government Act (section 400R) are to:

- establish regional priorities for the joint organisation area and strategies and plans to deliver these priorities
- provide regional leadership for the joint organisation area and advocate for strategic regional priorities, and
- identify and take-up opportunities for intergovernmental cooperation.

Joint organisations also deliver services and provide assistance to, or on behalf of, councils, and councils are able to delegate certain functions to their joint organisation (sections 355, 379 and 400S).

The Local Government Act (section 400Y) provides that the Executive officer of a joint organisation is to:

- conduct the day-to-day management of the joint organisation in accordance with the strategic regional priorities and other plans, programs, strategies and policies of the organisation, and
- appoint, direct and dismiss staff.

Audit, risk and improvement committee

The Local Government Act (section 428A) requires each council to establish an audit, risk and improvement committee to continuously review and provide independent advice to the general manager and the governing body of the council on:

- whether the council is complying with all necessary legislation, regulations and other legal requirements
- the adequacy and effectiveness of the council's risk management framework, fraud and corruption prevention activities, financial management processes, and the council's financial position and performance
- the council's governance arrangements
- the achievement by the council of the goals set out in the council's community strategic plan, delivery program, operational plan and other strategies
- how the council delivers local services and how it could improve the performance of its functions more generally
- the collection of performance measurement data by the council, and
- any other matters prescribed by the Local Government Regulation (including internal audit).

The Local Government Act (section 428B) allows councils to establish a joint audit, risk and improvement committee with other councils including through joint or regional organisations of councils.

The Local Government Regulation (clause #tbc):

- requires each council to appoint an audit, risk and improvement committee comprising of a chair and two or more other persons as specified by these Guidelines
- allows councils and joint organisations to share committees
- requires the Chair and other members of an audit, risk and improvement committee to satisfy the eligibility requirements outlined in these Guidelines
- allows councils to appoint a councillor who satisfies the eligibility requirements outlined in these Guidelines as a non-voting member of its committee
- allows joint organisations to appoint a voting representative of the board who satisfies the eligibility requirements

- outlined in these Guidelines as a non-voting member of its committee
- requires each committee to operate in accordance with terms of reference adopted by the council, based on the approved Model Terms of Reference contained in these Guidelines, and
 - requires councils to provide their committee with direct and unrestricted access to the general manager and other senior staff and any information and resources necessary to undertake its role.

For the purposes of section 428A(2)(i) of the Local Government Act, councils' and joint organisations' audit risk and review committees are to also keep internal audit activities under review.

The requirements for audit, risk and improvement committees in these Guidelines are detailed in core requirement 1.

Risk management

The Local Government Regulation (clause #tbc) requires each council and joint organisation to implement a risk management framework that is consistent with the requirements specified in these Guidelines.

A council's general manager or a joint organisation's executive officer has overall responsibility for the implementation of the council's or joint organisations' risk management framework.

A council's audit, risk and improvement committee is to review and provide independent advice to the council on the implementation of its risk management framework under section 428A(2)(b) of the Local Government Act.

The requirements for risk management in these Guidelines are detailed in core requirement 2.

The Local Government Regulation (clause #tbc):

- requires each council's internal audit activities to operate in accordance with a charter adopted by the council, based on the approved Model Internal Audit Charter contained in these Guidelines
- allows councils and joint organisations to share the performance of internal audit activities
- specifies that a council's audit, risk and improvement committee is to oversee the council's internal audit activities
- requires that a member of the council's staff is appointed to direct internal audit activities – for shared arrangements this can be a staff member of one of the participating councils or joint organisation in the shared arrangement
- requires this member of staff to report only to the audit, risk and improvement committee regarding internal audit activities
- requires the general manager to consider the views of the chair of the council's audit, risk and improvement committee before making any decision affecting the employment of the staff member appointed to direct internal audit activities, and
- requires the audit, risk and improvement committee to review the performance and efficacy of the council's internal audit activities once each council term and report to the governing body of the council on the outcome of its review and make recommendations.

The requirements for internal audit in these Guidelines are detailed in core requirement 3.

Annual attestation

The Local Government Regulation (clause #tbc) requires the general manager of a council or the executive officer of a joint organisation to publish each year an attestation statement in the council's or joint organisation's annual report indicating whether, during the preceding financial year, the council's or joint organisation's audit, risk and improvement committee, risk management framework and internal audit function complied with these Guidelines.

An attestation certificate template is provided at Appendix 1 and attestation requirements are highlighted with this symbol throughout these Guidelines.

The details of each member of the council's audit, risk and improvement committee must also be included in the attestation statement.

This is to ensure that the council takes independent assurance and risk management seriously and is accountable to the community for how it has implemented these requirements.

Compliance status is to be self-assessed by the general manager, in consultation with the audit, risk and improvement committee.

The general manager or executive officer must consider the views of the chair of the council's or joint organisation's audit risk and improvement committee on the content of the attestation statement when preparing the statement.

If the chair disagrees with the content of the attestation statement prepared by the general manager or executive officer, they may prepare their own report and submit this to the Secretary DPIE.

Exemptions

There may be times where a council or joint organisation will not be able to comply with all requirements relating to its audit, risk and improvement committee, risk management framework or internal audit function.

In these circumstances, the Local Government Regulation (clause #tbc) confers on the Secretary DPIE the power to exempt the council or joint organisation from compliance with a requirement under these Guidelines where the council or joint organisation requests such an exemption. The Secretary DPIE may grant an exemption where they are satisfied that:

- the council or joint organisation cannot comply with the requirement because of temporary extenuating circumstances or resourcing constraints that will significantly impact the council's or joint organisation's budget
- the council or joint organisation is not able to enter into an agreement with another council to share the performance of internal audit activities, and
- current or proposed alternative arrangements will achieve outcomes equivalent to the requirement under these Guidelines.

Under the Local Government Regulation, a council's application to the Secretary for an exemption must be in the form and contain the information specified in these Guidelines.

Where the Secretary exempts a council from a requirement under these Guidelines, the council must publish the Secretary's approval for the exemption in their annual report.

A council is not prevented from applying for a further exemption when a previous exemption expires.

Accountability

Councils that are non-compliant with statutory requirements and are not granted an exemption may face enforcement action under the Local Government Act.

Monitoring

The NSW Auditor-General may undertake an assurance role in monitoring council's compliance with the core requirements outlined in the Local Government Act, Local Government Regulation and these Guidelines.

This may include conducting sector-wide performance audits, or compliance audits of individual councils and undertaking reviews of the statutory exemptions granted by the Secretary DPIE.

Core requirement 1:

Audit, risk and improvement committee

- Each council and joint organisation has an audit, risk and improvement committee that reviews the matters referred to in section 428A of the Local Government Act

Guiding principles for audit, risk and improvement committees

- ❖ An audit, risk and improvement committee is independent of the council
- ❖ The committee is equipped with the relevant expertise and has the access to council resources and information necessary to fulfil its role and responsibilities effectively
- ❖ Each council receives relevant and timely advice and assurance from the committee on the matters listed in section 428A of the Local Government Act
- ❖ The work of the committee is thoroughly planned and executed, risk-based and linked to the council's strategic goals
- ❖ The committee adds value to the council and is held accountable by the governing body for its performance
- ❖ The council is accountable to the community for complying with statutory requirements relating to the committee.

Role and functions

Under section 428A of the Local Government Act, each council (including county councils and joint organisations) must have an audit, risk and improvement committee to independently review and advise on the following aspects of the council's operations:

- (a) compliance
- (b) risk management
- (c) fraud control
- (d) financial management
- (e) governance
- (f) implementation of the strategic plan, delivery program and strategies
- (g) service reviews
- (h) collection of performance measurement data by the council, and
- (i) any other matters prescribed by the regulation.

The Committee must also provide information to the council for the purpose of improving the council's performance of its functions.

The Local Government Regulation (clause #tbc) also requires a council's audit, risk and improvement committee to review and provide advice on the council's internal audit activities.

The audit, risk and improvement committee's role also extends to any entities established by or operated by the council.

The exact nature of each audit, risk and improvement committee's role and the specific activities it reviews on behalf of a council under section 428A of the Local Government Act will vary depending on the council's needs, risks and business functions.

These activities are to be agreed by the audit, risk and improvement committee and the council during the development of the committee's terms of reference. Suggested activities are provided in Appendix 2.

Level of assurance

Audit, risk and improvement committees are to have an advisory and assurance role only. They are to exercise no administrative functions, delegated financial responsibilities or any management functions for a council.

It is expected that each audit, risk and improvement committee will provide independent advice to the council that is informed by the council's internal audit and risk management activities and information and advice provided by council staff, relevant external bodies and other subject matter experts.

Workplans

Strategic work plan

It is essential that the work of the audit, risk and improvement committee is thoroughly planned and executed to ensure that no council activity or function is missed by the committee and that councils receive value for money from their assurance investment.

A council's audit, risk and improvement committee must develop a strategic plan every four years to ensure that all the matters listed in section 428A of the Local Government Act are reviewed by the committee and internal audit function over each council term.

The plan must be developed by the audit, risk and improvement committee in consultation with the governing body, general manager, the head of the internal audit function and senior managers (where appropriate) and adopted by the governing body of the council at the start of the council term.

To maintain the independence of the audit, risk and improvement committee, the governing body of the council must be careful when adopting the strategic workplan not to direct the committee's work over the council term.

Content

The nature of the strategic plan will be commensurate with the size and complexity of the council, as well as the council's risk profile, and consistent with the requirements of the International Professional Practices Framework.

At a minimum, it should document:

- the goals and expected outcomes of the audit, risk and improvement committee for the council term
- key organisational issues and risks faced by the council and how the committee will review these, and
- key performance indicators to measure progress across council terms.

When developing the council's strategic workplan, the audit, risk and improvement committee should consider at a minimum:

- the council's strategic objectives
- risks facing the council
- the work of other review activities or functions (for example, external and performance audits, and reviews or audits by other government agencies)

- an assurance map of the council's assurance activities which may assist to determine where the Committee's and internal audit function's work should focus, and
- stakeholder expectations.

There should also be sufficient flexibility in the strategic plan to accommodate the need for additional audits on emerging risks from time to time.

The audit, risk and improvement committee may, in consultation with the council's governing body, vary the strategic work plan at any time to address new or emerging risks.

The governing body of the council may also, by resolution, request the committee to approve a variation to the strategic work plan. However, any decision to vary the strategic work plan will rest with the committee.

When considering whether to vary the strategic work plan, the committee must consider the impact of the variation on the internal audit function's existing workload and the completion of pre-existing priorities and activities identified under the strategic workplan.

Review

The audit, risk and improvement committee must review the four-year strategic plan at least annually to ensure that it is dynamic, relevant and aligns with the council's risk profile.

This will also ensure that the council remains on track with its audits and any slippage in progress can be quickly addressed.

Annual work plan

A council's audit, risk and improvement committee must develop an annual work plan to guide its work over the forward year.

The annual work plan must be developed by the audit, risk and improvement committee in consultation with the governing body, general manager, head of the internal audit function and senior managers (where appropriate).

The annual work plan must be consistent with the requirements of the International Professional Practices Framework and identify:

- the internal audits that will be carried out during the year to support the work of the audit, risk and improvement committee
- the key goals, objectives and scope of the proposed audits
- the resources needed for each audit (for example, staffing, budget, technology), and
- key performance indicators to measure annual progress against.

The annual work plan must be flexible enough to allow it to be reviewed and adjusted as necessary throughout the year in response to any changes to the council's risks or operations.

The audit, risk and improvement committee may, in consultation with the council's governing body vary the annual work plan to address new or emerging risks.

The governing body of the council may also, by resolution, request the committee to approve a variation to the annual work plan. However, any decision to vary the annual work plan will rest with the committee.

When considering whether to vary the annual work plan, the committee must consider the impact of the variation on the internal audit function's existing workload and the completion of pre-existing priorities and activities identified under the annual work plan.

Performance measurement

The performance of each council's audit, risk and improvement committee and internal audit function, as well as the council, must be able to be assessed to measure progress and improvement.

The audit, risk and improvement committee must establish key performance indicators for the councils strategic four-yearly workplan and annual work plan to enable the council to gauge the:

- performance of the Committee and internal audit function and the value they are providing the council, and
- council's performance regarding the matters listed in s428A so that the council can assess whether it is improving each council term in these areas.

These key performance indicators are to be reviewed and reset by the audit, risk and improvement committee for each annual work plan and strategic four-yearly work plan to ensure they reflect the changing needs of the council and the increased capacity of the Committee and internal audit function as they mature.

The general manager, in consultation with the audit, risk and improvement committee, must ensure that a data collection or performance management system is established and maintained to collect the data needed to measure progress against these key performance indicators.

Providing advice to the governing body

Quarterly updates

Ongoing reporting by the audit, risk and improvement committee to the governing body (and general manager) is essential for accountability and will ensure that the governing body is kept abreast of matters considered by the Committee and any emerging issues that may influence the strategic direction of the council or the achievement of the council's goals and objectives.

It will also ensure strong linkages between the audit, risk and improvement committee, the governing body and the general manager and lead to a better functioning assurance mechanism.

The audit, risk and improvement committee must provide an update to the governing body of the council of its activities and opinions after every committee meeting.

The audit, risk and improvement committee must also provide its quarterly update to the general manager to ensure they are kept abreast of issues raised and can answer any questions the governing body may have about the committee's opinions and recommendations.

The mayor can request to meet with the Chair of the audit, risk and improvement committee at any time to discuss any issues relating to the work of the committee during the quarter.

The chair of the audit, risk and improvement committee can also request to meet with the mayor at any time.

Content

The nature and content of the audit, risk and improvement committee's quarterly updates is to be determined by the governing body and the committee.

It could simply be providing a copy of the audit, risk and improvement committee's meeting minutes to the governing body if appropriate, or something more formal such as a report for noting by the governing body, or a face-to-face meeting between the committee, governing body and general manager to discuss important issues that have been identified.

Whatever the nature and form the update takes, the governing body and general manager must be advised, at a minimum, of:

- any formal resolutions of the audit, risk and improvement committee
- the committee's assessment of any audits conducted, including any breaches or lack of controls that require an immediate response from the council
- progress on the implementation of corrective actions
- opportunities for longer-term improvement, and

- any key opinions or 'take-outs' from the committee's meeting.

Should the governing body require additional information, a request for the information may be made to the Chair by resolution. The Chair may only provide the information requested by the governing body where the Chair is satisfied that it is reasonably necessary for the governing body to receive the information for the purposes of performing its functions under the Local Government Act.

Individual councillors are not entitled to request or receive information from the Committee.

Annual assessment

A council's audit, risk and improvement committee must provide an annual assessment to the governing body each year.

This will ensure that the governing body of the council is fully informed of the audit, risk and improvement committee's work and its opinion on how council is performing.

The annual assessment must include:

- a summary and assessment of the work the audit, risk and improvement committee performed to discharge its responsibilities during the preceding year
- an overview and assessment of the work of the internal audit function
- progress against key performance indicators
- advice on the appropriateness of the committee's terms of reference
- an independent assessment and advice on the matters considered by the committee during the year that, in the committee's opinion, and based on the level of risk facing the council, the governing body should be informed of, and
- other views or opinions of the council that the committee wishes to impart.

Before providing their annual assessment to the governing body, the audit, risk and improvement committee must provide a copy of its annual assessment report to the general manager to enable them to develop an action plan to address any issues identified.

Both the audit, risk and improvement committee's annual assessment and the general manager's action plan can then be considered jointly by the governing body at an annual assurance meeting with the committee and the general manager.

Annual assurance meeting

It would be beneficial for the audit, risk and improvement committee, governing body and general manager to come together annually to discuss the committee's annual assessment of the council, how the council proposes to respond to the committee's recommendations for corrective actions and other important internal audit and risk management matters.

The governing body may wish to hold an extraordinary or additional meeting each year for this purpose.

The annual assurance meeting should also discuss:

- the audit, risk and improvement committee's annual plan and review priorities for the upcoming year, for the approval via resolution of the governing body
- any resourcing issues for the internal audit or risk management functions that the committee considers the governing body should be informed of
- any updated committee terms of reference, for approval via resolution by the governing body, and
- the general manager's annual assessment of the council's risk management function (see core requirement 2).

The mayor, chair of the audit, risk and improvement committee and general manager can invite observers or other participants to the meeting where appropriate.

Strategic assessment

A council's audit, risk and improvement committee must provide to the governing body of the council a comprehensive independent assessment every council term (i.e. four years) of all the matters listed in section 428A of the Local Government Act.

This will ensure that the governing body of the council is fully informed of the council's performance in relation to the matters specified in section 428A of the Local Government Act and what corrective actions are required to address any issues identified.

It will also provide the governing body with essential information that will assist with strategic decision-making and resource allocation during the next council term.

Before providing their strategic assessment to the governing body, the audit, risk and improvement committee must provide a copy of its report to the general manager to enable the general manager to develop an action plan to address any issues identified during the next council term.

Given the audit, risk and improvement committee's functional responsibility for the internal audit function of the council, the committee must also develop an action plan for the governing body to address any internal audit issues identified by the Committee.

The audit, risk and improvement committee's strategic assessment and the action plans can be considered jointly by the governing body at a strategic assurance meeting held every four years.

Strategic assurance meeting

It would be beneficial for the audit, risk and improvement committee, governing body and general manager to come together at the close of the council term or commencement of the new council term to discuss the committee's strategic assessment of the council, how the council proposes to respond to the committee's recommendations during the next council term and any other important internal audit and risk management issues.

This discussion can also inform the strategic plans to be made through the integrated planning and reporting process for the next council term.

The governing body may wish to hold an extraordinary or additional meeting for this purpose.

The four-yearly assessment meeting could also discuss:

- the audit, risk and improvement committee's four-yearly strategic plan for the upcoming council term, for approval by resolution of the governing body
- a four-yearly review of the committee's terms of reference, for noting by the governing body and where applicable, an updated terms of reference for approval by resolution
- the governing body's four-yearly review of the committee's performance and action plan to address any issues identified, for approval by resolution of the governing body
- the Office of Local Government's determination of which tier the council is assigned to for the next council term for the purpose of structuring their committee.

Terms of Reference

It is important that each audit, risk and improvement committee has clear guidance on how it should serve the council, and that the council has input into how the committee will operate given its investment.

This will ensure there is no ambiguity between the council and the audit, risk and improvement committee, and that the council can measure the committee's performance.

The Local Government Regulation (clause #tbc) requires a council's audit, risk and improvement committee to operate according to terms of reference consistent with the approved Model Terms of Reference provided at Appendix 3.

The audit, risk and improvement committee's terms of reference can include additional provisions that are not inconsistent with the approved Model Terms of Reference or other requirements.

The terms of reference are to be approved by resolution of the governing body and reviewed annually by the audit, risk and improvement committee, and once each council term (i.e. four years) by the governing body.

Structure

Each council will have different audit, risk and improvement committee requirements depending on the council's size, needs, budget and the complexity of its operations.

For this reason, councils can either:

- establish an audit, risk and improvement committee for its own exclusive use, or
- share their committee with another council, county council or joint organisation under section 428B of the Local Government Act.

When deciding the most appropriate way to structure a council's audit, risk and improvement committee, the general manager should consider the viability and capacity of a shared committee to achieve its terms of reference given the:

- size of the council in terms of both staffing levels and budget
- geographical and functional distribution of the council's operations
- complexity of the council's core business
- risk profile of the council
- expectations of stakeholders, and
- likely demands placed on the committee by other councils in the shared arrangement.

Size and composition

Each council, county council and joint organisation has been categorised as a tier 1 (lowest), tier 2 (middle) or tier 3 (highest) council for the purposes of determining the size and composition of their audit risk and improvement committee.

These categories are detailed in Appendix 4.

This categorisation is based on:

- the population, population density and annual population growth or the local government area
- the proximity of the local government area to an urban or regional centre
- the council's financial status (including operating revenue and expenses)
- the grouping of the council with other similar councils according to the Your Council website
- the remuneration categories determined by the Local Government Remuneration Tribunal, and
- an understanding by the Office of Local Government of the council's overall performance and risk profile.

The Local Government Regulation (clause #tbc) requires each council to appoint an audit, risk and improvement committee that has three or more members according to the council's categorisation under these Guidelines as a tier 1, tier 2 or tier 3 council.

This is to ensure that the requirements of a council's audit, risk and improvement committee are appropriate for the council's size, risk profile, operational complexity, resources, and its ability to attract suitably qualified committee members.

While there are a number of significant differences in the size and composition of audit, risk and improvement committees established by councils under each tier, councils and joint organisations in all tiers must comply with the following requirements:

- the chair of the audit, risk and improvement committee must:
 - meet the independence requirements for committee members, and
 - be prequalified as a chair under the NSW Government's Prequalification Scheme: Audit and Risk Committee Independent Chairs and Members ('prequalification scheme') (unless exemption applies)
- all other voting members must meet the independence requirements for committee members (see below)
- the Local Government Regulation (clause #tbc) allows each committee to have an optional non-voting councillor member that meets the committee's eligibility criteria for councillor members (see below), and
- the size and composition requirements of a committee are the same whether the committee is established by a council for its exclusive use or as part of a shared arrangement.

The minimum requirements for the composition of audit risk and improvement committees in each tier are set out below. It should be noted that these are the minimum requirements.

Councils can establish larger committees and include more prequalified committee members than required should they choose to do so.

Tier review

The tier each council has been placed in will be reviewed by the Office of Local Government each council term.

Any changes must be considered by councils as part of their four-yearly review of the audit, risk and improvement committee. Where a council is re-categorised by the Office of Local Government to a higher or lower tier, the council will need to review the structure and composition of its audit, risk and improvement committee to comply with the requirements of the tier it has been placed in.

The governing body of a council can determine via resolution to either:

- comply immediately – i.e. vacate all the redundant membership positions and appoint new members that comply with the new requirements at the same time, or
- comply later - stagger compliance by allowing existing members to complete their current terms and ensure any members appointed thereafter comply with the new requirement.

Where compliance is staggered, the council can request an exemption from the Secretary DPIE from complying with the new requirement in relation to the committee's composition as part of the attestation process.

Any exemption granted will apply for two reporting periods (i.e. two years).

Councils that are categorised in a higher tier may maintain their existing arrangements where they are reviewed by the Office of Local Government and placed in a lower tier should they choose to do so.

General purpose councils

Tier 1 councils

All councils that are categorised as a tier 1 council are required at a minimum to have an audit, risk and improvement committee that has:

- 3 independent voting members comprising:
 - 1 chair prequalified under the NSW Government's prequalification scheme
 - 2 independent persons that meet the eligibility criteria for non-prequalified committee members (see below), and
- (optional) 1 non-voting councillor that meets the eligibility criteria for councillor members (see below).

Exemptions

It is recognised that some small councils located in remote local government areas may find it difficult to attract and retain a prequalified chair for their audit, risk and improvement committee.

Whilst prequalification is preferred, where a tier 1 council is unable to appoint a prequalified chair, the council can apply to the Secretary DPIE for an exemption from this requirement.

The council's application for an exemption must:

- be in writing
- outline the efforts the council has made to appoint a prequalified chair, and
- outline the reasons why the council has been unsuccessful.

The council must also demonstrate to the Secretary that any alternative chair recommended for appointment meets the following eligibility criteria:

- strong leadership qualities
- the ability to promote effective working relationships among audit, risk and improvement committee members and with the council's internal audit function and external auditor
- the ability to communicate complex and sensitive issues in a tactful manner to the governing body, general manager and council staff
- an understanding of the duties and responsibilities of the position
- a sound understanding of the council and local government
- functional knowledge in areas such as:
 - financial management and reporting
 - accounting
 - governance (including planning, reporting and oversight)
 - internal and external audit
 - performance management
 - human resources management
 - risk management
 - internal control frameworks
- they can lead effective committee meetings, and
- they have appropriate qualifications or membership to a certifying body (desirable).

Where a council is granted an exemption from this requirement by the Secretary, the exemption will apply for the duration of the chair's term.

Exemptions will only be granted in exceptional circumstances.

The Secretary may consult with the administrator of prequalification scheme when making its exemption determination.

Tier 2 councils

All councils that are categorised as a tier 2 council are required at a minimum to have an audit, risk and improvement committee that has:

- 3 voting members comprising:
 - 1 independent chair prequalified under the NSW Government's prequalification scheme
 - 1 independent member prequalified under the NSW Government's prequalification scheme
 - 1 independent person that meets the eligibility criteria for non-prequalified committee members (see below), and
- (optional) 1 non-voting councillor that meets the eligibility criteria for councillor members (see below).

Tier 3 councils

All councils categorised as a tier 3 council are required to have an audit, risk and improvement committee that has:

- 3-5 voting members comprising:
 - 1 independent chair prequalified under the NSW Government's prequalification scheme
 - A minimum of 2 independent members prequalified under the NSW Government's prequalification scheme, and
- (optional) 1 non-voting councillor that meets the eligibility criteria for councillor members (see below).

The audit, risk and improvement committee appointed by Tier 3 councils should be large enough to represent a balance of views and experience, but also small enough to operate effectively.

The governing body is to determine the exact size of the audit, risk and improvement committee (3-5 members) in consultation with the chair of the committee and general manager, taking into account the needs and risk profile of the council, and likely workload of the committee.

County councils

Given their lower risk profile, resource base and operational complexity, county councils are categorised as either tier 1 or tier 2 councils for the purpose of establishing their audit, risk and improvement committee.

Whilst a tier 1 county council can establish an audit, risk and improvement committee for its own exclusive use, for administrative and cost efficiency, it is recommended that tier 1 county councils utilise the committee of a member council/s under an independent shared arrangement (see below).

Joint organisations

Given their lower risk profile, resource base and operational complexity, joint organisations are categorised as tier 1 councils for the purpose of establishing an audit, risk and improvement committee.

Where a joint organisation has not established an audit, risk and improvement committee within the joint organisation for its member councils as part of a joint organisation shared arrangement, for administrative and cost efficiency, it is recommended that a joint organisation utilise a committee established by one of its member councils as part of an independent shared arrangement (see below).

To ensure the audit, risk and improvement committee has an understanding of the interrelationships and needs of the joint organisation and its member councils, and of wider regional priorities, joint organisations must only enter into an independent shared arrangement with a member council/s.

Shared committees

Under the Local Government Act (section 428B) and Local Government Regulation (clause #tbc) councils can share an audit, risk and improvement committee. Council can:

- share their committee with another council/s, county council/s and/or joint organisation/s as part of an independent shared arrangement
- utilise a committee established by their joint organisation that is shared with all member councils
- for county councils - share their committee with a member council, or
- for joint organisation - share their committee with a member council.

These options allow councils to establish and operate their audit, risk and improvement committee in a more cost-effective way.

For all shared audit, risk and improvement committees:

- the committee must operate as an individual committee for each council in any shared arrangement and exercise their functions for each council individually
- a shared committee should only be established and utilised by councils where the committee can maintain a strong understanding of each participating council's assurance needs and is able to meet these needs
- a shared committee should only be established and utilised by councils where the committee can maintain an effective working and reporting relationship with the general manager and governing body of each participating council
- councils that are in different tiers but share their internal audit function can, but are not required to, also share their committee
- where a committee is shared by councils that are in different tiers, the requirements for the higher tier will apply to all participating councils (including joint organisations and county councils)
- councils that share their Committee, can but are not required to, also share the committee's secretariat, and

- councils should develop and sign a formal agreement with the other councils in the shared arrangement which outlines how the shared arrangement will operate and costs shared.

Where a joint organisation establishes an audit, risk and improvement committee to serve its member councils, it is at each member council's discretion whether they utilise the shared committee.

Shared councillor members

It is important to note that where an audit, risk and improvement committee is shared between councils as part of an independently established shared arrangement, or an arrangement established by a joint organisation, and the councils elect to have a councillor member on the committee, the councillor member will not be shared by councils.

To maintain the confidentiality of the business of each council in the shared arrangement considered by the shared committee:

- the governing body of each council is to appoint one councillor member to serve on the audit, risk and improvement committee for that council only
- the councillor member is to only attend committee meetings for their council, and
- the councillor member is to receive information pertaining to their council only.

For joint organisations, the elected councillor member will be a voting representative of the board.

Shared independent members

Unlike councillor members, the chair and independent members of shared audit, risk and improvement committees will serve all councils participating in the shared arrangement.

For audit, risk and improvement committees appointed as part of an independent shared arrangement, the councils in the shared arrangement are to mutually agree to the independent members that will be appointed to these roles, and each council is to confirm their appointment by resolution.

For audit, risk and improvement committees appointed as part of an arrangement established by a joint organisation by its member councils, the board of the joint organisation will appoint the chair and independent members of the committee by resolution on behalf of member councils under delegation from the member councils.

Independence requirements

All audit, risk and improvement committee voting members must be independent to ensure they have no real or perceived bias or conflicts of interest that may interfere with their ability to act independently and can provide the council with robust, objective and unbiased advice about how the council is functioning.

Each council must ensure that the chair and any voting member appointed to the council's audit, risk and improvement committee meets the following independence criteria.

The independent voting committee member cannot:

- currently be a councillor of any NSW council
- be a non-voting representative of the board of a joint organisation
- be a candidate at the last election of the council
- be a person who has held office in the council during its previous term
- be currently employed by the council or a joint organisation, or been employed during the last 12 months
- conduct audits of the council on behalf of the Audit Office of NSW
- have a close personal or business relationship with a councillor or a person who has a senior role in the council that may lead to a real or perceived conflict of interest

- currently, or within the last three years, provided any material goods or services (including consultancy, legal, internal audit and advisory services) to the council which directly affect subjects or issues considered by the audit, risk and improvement committee
- be (or have a close family member who is) a substantial shareholder, owner, officer or employee of a company that has a material business, contractual relationship, direct financial interest or material indirect financial interest with the council or a related entity which could be considered a real or perceived conflict of interest, or
- currently or have previously acted as an advocate of a material interest on behalf of the council or a related entity which could be considered a real or perceived conflict of interest.

Both the governing body of the council and the general manager must ensure that adequate procedures are in place to preserve the independence of the chair and members of the audit, risk and improvement committee.

Likewise, the chair and members must notify the governing body and/or general manager if a real or perceived threat to their independence arises.

Eligibility requirements

The persons appointed as a chair or a member of an audit, risk and improvement committee must possess the skills, knowledge and experience necessary to undertake their roles on the committee effectively and to ensure the committee is able to operate appropriately and effectively to support the council.

A poorly skilled audit, risk and improvement committee may not be able to provide the assurance needed by the council and may lead to sub-optimal outcomes that jeopardise the council's capacity to achieve its strategic objectives.

Councils must ensure that the chair and other members of the council's audit, risk and improvement committee meet the below eligibility criteria.

Prequalified members

In addition to meeting the independence requirements listed above, prequalified audit, risk and improvement committee voting members must be sourced from the NSW Government's prequalification scheme.

Individuals that have been prequalified under the scheme have been assessed by an independent expert panel convened by the NSW Government as having the skills, knowledge and experience to perform the role as a chair or member of a council's audit, risk and improvement committee.

A person prequalified under the scheme as a 'committee member' can only be appointed as a member of an audit, risk and improvement committee – they cannot be appointed as the chair.

Similarly, only a person pre-qualified as a 'chair' can be appointed as the chair of an audit, risk and improvement committee. To preserve their independence, and as a condition of the prequalification scheme, prequalified members can be appointed to up to (#tbc) separate audit, risk and improvement committees in the NSW public sector and the NSW local government sector.

Non-prequalified members

In addition to meeting the independence requirements listed above, non-prequalified audit, risk and improvement committee voting members must satisfy the following eligibility criteria to be appointed as a committee member.

They must:

- have the qualities and personal attributes needed to serve the council effectively in their role as a committee member
- have a functional knowledge in areas that would provide a valuable contribution to the committee and council such as:
 - local government
 - internal audit and external audit
 - risk management
 - governance
 - performance management
 - financial management and reporting
 - accounting
 - human resources management
 - internal control frameworks
 - fraud and corruption prevention
 - IT/cyber security
 - the local community, or
 - another relevant subject matter, and
- undertake any training on the operation of audit, risk and improvement committees recommended by the chair based on their assessment of the skills, knowledge and experience of the committee member.

A member of an audit, risk and improvement committee must also demonstrate the following personal qualities and attributes:

- a commitment to the independence of their role
- integrity
- a capacity to dedicate sufficient time and energy
- financial literacy, including an ability to read or understand basic financial statements, ask pertinent questions about them, and interpret and evaluate answers
- an ability to give direct and honest opinions and offer different perspectives and constructive suggestions, and
- inquisitiveness and independent judgment.

Councils must undertake a criminal record and financial status (bankruptcy) check of an independent non-prequalified audit, risk and improvement committee member before their appointment.

Councillor members

Non-voting councillor members must satisfy the following eligibility criteria to be appointed as an audit, risk and improvement committee member. They must:

- be financially literate
- have a good understanding of one or more of the following that would provide a valuable contribution to the committee:
 - internal audit and external audit
 - risk management
 - governance
 - performance management
 - financial management and reporting
 - accounting
 - human resources management
 - internal control frameworks
 - fraud and corruption prevention
 - IT/cyber security
 - the local community, or
 - another relevant subject matter, and
- undertake any training on the operation of audit, risk and improvement committees recommended by the chair based on their assessment of the skills, knowledge and experience of the committee member.

The mayor cannot be appointed as a councillor member on a council's audit, risk and improvement committee.

Appointment

Audit, risk and improvement committee chairs and members are appointed by a resolution of the governing body of the council.

The governing body should first appoint the chair of the audit, risk and improvement committee, who is to then assist in the selection and appointment of the other independent committee members.

Skills mix

When selecting individual audit, risk and improvement committee members, the governing body of the council is required to ensure that the committee has the appropriate mix of skills, knowledge and experience to successfully implement its terms of reference and add value to the council.

The audit, risk and improvement committee should have:

- at least one member with financial expertise (for example, a qualified accountant or auditor or other financial professional with experience of financial and accounting matters), and
- a mix of skills and experience in:
 - business
 - financial and legal compliance
 - risk management, and
 - internal audit, and
 - any specialised business operations of the council, where the committee would benefit from having a member with skills or experience in this area (for example, IT skills or experience where IT systems have an important role in the council's business).

All audit, risk and improvement committee members should have sufficient understanding of the council's financial reporting responsibilities to be able to contribute to the committee's consideration of the annual financial statements.

Each individual should also have sufficient time to devote to their responsibilities as an audit, risk and improvement committee member. Where possible, the governing body should ensure that at least one other audit, risk and improvement committee member is also qualified to act as the chair, if this is ever required.

Letter of appointment

The appointment of chairs and members of audit, risk and improvement committees should be formalised in an official letter of appointment signed by the mayor of the council.

The letter of appointment should set out the terms and conditions of the appointment including:

- duration of appointment
- role and responsibilities
- timing and location of meetings
- time commitment
- remuneration
- the management of conflicts of interest
- confidentiality
- performance appraisal, and
- termination of appointment.

Induction

Induction of all new audit, risk and improvement committee members is vital to ensure they 'hit the ground running' in their role.

The chair is to provide a thorough induction to each new member of the audit, risk and improvement committee to ensure they understand:

- the committee's role, responsibilities and terms of reference
- the business, operations, culture, risks and controls of the council, and
- the expectations of the council about their responsibilities and performance.

This will include providing new members with any background information or documentation necessary to ensure they understand the work of the audit, risk and improvement committee.

It may also be appropriate for more detailed information or presentations to be provided from various senior staff to assist the new member to understand the operations of the council and any key challenges.

New audit, risk and improvement committee members also have an obligation to ensure that they have an appropriate understanding of the council, including its:

- operations, functions, service delivery
- key areas of risk
- internal controls, and
- financial reporting systems.

The mayor, general manager and existing chair (where appropriate) will induct a new chair.

Membership terms

Voting members

To ensure the audit, risk and improvement committee continues to offer new perspectives and remains independent, it is important that committee members are rotated periodically to maintain a fresh approach and avoid any perceptions of bias or conflicts of interest.

Councils are to ensure that chairs and members serve the following time-limited terms to facilitate a rotation of knowledge and perspectives.

The initial term of membership on an audit, risk and improvement committee is four-years (one council term).

Audit, risk and improvement committee members can be reappointed for a further term but the total period of continuous membership on the committee cannot exceed eight years (two council terms). This includes any term as chair of the committee.

Individuals who have served an eight-year term (either as a member or chair) must have a two-year break from serving on the audit, risk and improvement committee before being appointed again.

Care is to be taken to ensure that membership renewal dates are staggered so knowledge of the council's operations, financial reporting structure and other important aspects are not lost to the audit, risk and improvement committee when members change.

Ideally, no more than one member should leave the committee because of rotation in any one year.

Exemptions

If a tier 1 council is unable to replace the chair or members of its audit, risk and improvement committee when their maximum term limit has been reached, the council can seek the approval of the Secretary DPIE to extend their term or to reappoint the chair or committee member for a further term.

The council's request must:

- be in writing
- describe the efforts the council has made to appoint a different member, and
- explain why the council has been unsuccessful.

Chair

To ensure that the committee maintains a fresh approach, the initial term of a chair of an audit, risk and improvement committee on any one audit, risk and improvement committee is four-years (one council term).

The chair can be reappointed as chair for a further term but the total period served by a chair cannot exceed eight years (two council terms).

Where the chair's term expires and another chair is appointed, it is the responsibility of the outgoing chair to ensure the incoming chair is fully briefed on the ongoing work of the audit, risk and improvement committee.

This includes advising the incoming chair of:

- any activity that may be relevant to the ongoing functioning of the committee, and
- any outstanding matters of high risk to the council and outstanding audit recommendations.

Councillor members

The initial term of a councillor member of an audit, risk and improvement committee is four years, coinciding with the term of the council.

The councillor member can be reappointed for another term (i.e. four-years), if re-elected at the council's next ordinary election, but the total period of continuous membership on the committee cannot exceed eight years (two council terms).

The councillor member is to be appointed by the governing body at the first meeting of the council after the ordinary election.

Reappointment

Prior to approving the reappointment or extension of the chair or an independent member's term, the governing body of the council must undertake an assessment of the chair's or committee member's performance.

The council may engage an external reviewer to undertake this assessment if they choose.

In undertaking the assessment, the council, or any person appointed to undertake the assessment on behalf of the council, must consult with and consider the views of the chair (in the case of the reappointment or extension of the term of a committee member other than the chair), the general manager and any councillor member of the committee. The reappointment of members is also to be subject to the individual still meeting independence and eligibility requirements.

Fees

The fees a council pays to its chair and independent voting members of its audit, risk and improvement committee are to be agreed by the council and the Chair or member and reflect the time, commitment and responsibility involved in serving on the committee.

Chairs and members can serve on a committee on a voluntary basis if they choose to.

Councils should consider the fees payable under the prequalification scheme when determining the fees paid to prequalified chairs and members.

Superannuation

Councils are obliged under the Superannuation Guarantee Administration Act 1992 to make compulsory superannuation guarantee contributions on behalf of audit, risk and improvement committee chairs and voting members

Roles of committee members

Chair

The position of the chair of an audit, risk and improvement committee is pivotal to the committee's effectiveness and is the focal point for the committee's relationship with the council, the internal audit function and external auditor.

The chair acts as the interface between the audit, risk and improvement committee and the general manager and other staff, the governing body, the external auditor, and the internal audit function.

Any individual audit, risk and improvement committee member who wishes to meet with the general manager or governing body of the council to discuss any issues relating to the committee's responsibilities is to do so through the chair of the committee, and vice versa.

To be successful in their role, a chair must:

- have strong leadership qualities
- have the personal courage to raise and deal with tough issues and express opinions frankly, and to support other committee members to do the same
- be able to recommend the appointment of committee members to the governing body
- maintain effective working relationships between committee members and with the council
- keep the governing body and general manager informed and brief them on the strategic and technical aspects of internal audits and risk and control issues

- lead effective committee meetings including:
 - planning for and setting agendas for meetings, ensuring committee members are adequately informed of matters to be considered prior to meetings and allowing sufficient time for discussion of those matters at the meeting
 - ensuring the meeting runs smoothly and that the views of members are heard
 - focus the committee's deliberations on the most important issues
 - seek the input of advisers, observers and other experts to maximise committee deliberations
 - summarise discussion outcomes and actions, including assigning responsibility and timeframes for actions
- maintain an effective working relationship with the council's external auditor
- oversee the internal audit function and be alert to external accountability and internal audit concerns
- arrange for all committee members to maintain an up-to-date knowledge of the council and its activities, including any financial or regulatory developments, and
- know the strengths and weaknesses of the committee, and individual committee members and how this may affect the opinions of the committee.

Independent members

Independent audit, risk and improvement committee members are expected to be able to assess information provided to them about the council and to identify and assess key risks and issues.

Each member should be capable of making a valuable contribution to the committee.

To be successful in their role, a member must:

- take a professional approach to their responsibilities, including an appropriate commitment of time and effort

- know the business, culture and values of the council and take the time to understand changes that affect how the council operates and its risks
- have sufficient understanding of the council's financial reporting responsibilities to be able to contribute to the committee's consideration of the annual financial statements
- understand the role of the committee and the expectations of the council
- act in the best interests of the council
- take a professional approach
- be a good communicator and build effective relationships with the council and other committee members, and
- have the personal courage to raise and deal with tough issues, express opinions frankly, ask questions that go to the fundamental core of the issue and pursue independent lines of inquiry.

Councillor members

Councillor members of audit, risk and improvement committees are non-voting members of committees. This is to ensure that decision making by the committee is independent of the council.

Councillor members of committees act as an important link between the governing body and the committee.

Their role is to:

- relay to the committee any concerns the governing body may have regarding the council and issues being considered by the committee
- provide insights into local issues and the strategic priorities of the council that would add value to the committee's consideration of agenda items
- advise the governing body (as necessary) of the work of the committee and any issues arising from it, and
- assist the governing body to review the performance of the committee each council term.

Issues or information councillor members raise with or provide the audit, risk and improvement committee must relate to the matters listed in section 428A of the Local Government Act, the committee's terms of reference and issues being considered by the Committee.

Councillor members of audit, risk and improvement committees are not entitled to receive information about audit, risk and improvement committee activities outside of established reporting requirements.

Councillor members of audit, risk and improvement committees must conduct themselves in a non-partisan and professional manner.

Councillor members of committees must not engage in any conduct that seeks to politicise the activities of the committee or the internal audit function or that could be seen to do so.

Where councillor members of audit, risk and improvement committees engage in such conduct or in any other conduct that may bring the committee and its work into disrepute, the chair may recommend to the council, that the councillor member be removed from membership of the committee.

Where the council does not agree to the chair's recommendation, it must give reasons for its decision in writing to the chair.

Key relationships

General manager

A key role of audit, risk and improvement committees is to act as an independent source of advice and opinion to both the governing body and the general manager, and to act as a forum for the resolution of any disagreements between the council and internal audit function.

The general manager, in turn, also has a key role in supporting the work and effectiveness of the audit, risk and improvement committee.

To be effective, audit, risk and improvement committees need to maintain a positive working relationship with the general manager (and vice versa) and view them as a significant source of advice and information about the council and its operations.

Chairs of audit, risk and improvement committees should meet regularly with general managers to discuss key issues and review performance.

External audit

There are strong linkages between the work of councils' audit, risk and improvement committees and their external auditor and committees should actively engage with the external auditor.

Councils' external auditor can offer valuable insights on issues such as the effectiveness of the council's risk, controls, financial reporting, and compliance frameworks.

For the external auditor, communication with the audit, risk and improvement committee can in turn facilitate an effective and efficient audit and assist the communication of matters arising from the external audit to the council.

Audit, risk and improvement committees should:

- provide input on, and discuss, planned financial and performance audit coverage
- monitor councils' responses to financial statement management letters and performance audit reports, including the implementation of audit recommendations
- provide advice to the council on action taken on significant issues raised in relevant external auditor reports or better practice guides, and
- have a voting-members only meeting with the external auditor at least once per year so that the committee can obtain the views of the external auditor without internal audit or management advisers being present.

Internal audit

The audit, risk and improvement committee should maintain a strong, positive relationship with the council's internal audit function and view it as a significant source of information about what is going on in the council.

The internal audit function can also assist the audit, risk and improvement committee to develop the annual and four-yearly workplans that will guide the committee's and internal audit function's work.

The chair of the audit, risk and improvement committee should routinely meet with council staff undertaking internal audit activities to discuss key issues and review performance if needed.

At least one private meeting should be held each year and any potential compromises to the internal audit activity's independence reported.

More information about this is provided in core requirement 3.

Meetings

The audit, risk and improvement must meet at least quarterly over the course of each year.

The chair of the audit, risk and improvement committee is to decide the frequency and timing of the committee's meetings and plan them annually in advance to ensure the availability of all members and observers.

Generally, meetings should correspond with major phases of the council's financial reporting, external audit and internal audit cycles.

For example, the audit, risk and improvement committee should meet to review the council's financial statements before they are certified by the council.

Audit, risk and improvement committee meetings should also correspond with meetings of the governing body, and allow sufficient time between audit, risk and improvement committee meetings and council meetings for the committee to action any items and prepare any reports that are to be provided to the governing body at the council meeting.

Special meetings may be held, if needed, to review the council's financial statements prior to them being submitted to the governing body of the council, or to consider the audit, risk and improvement committee's annual or four-yearly assessments.

Audit, risk and improvement committee meetings can be held in person, by telephone or videoconference.

The audit, risk and improvement committee can hold additional meetings when significant unexpected issues arise, or if the chair is asked to hold an additional meeting by a committee member or the general manager.

The governing body can also resolve to request the audit, risk and improvement committee to hold an additional meeting.

Where such a request is made, the chair can decide whether the additional meeting is required, taking into consideration the issues that the governing body has requested the audit, risk and improvement committee to consider at the meeting.

Proxies

As audit, risk and improvement committee members are appointed on the basis of their skills, knowledge and personal qualities, proxies are not permitted to attend meetings on behalf of members who are unable to attend.

Quorum

A quorum consists of a majority of audit, risk and improvement committee independent voting members.

Where the vote is tied, the chair is to have the casting vote.

Agenda

Forward agenda

The chair should prepare a 12-month forward meeting agenda to ensure that the audit, risk and improvement committee covers all its responsibilities at the appropriate time of the year.

For example, the forward agenda will set out, at the appropriate meeting, the various internal and external audit reports and management responses to be tabled and discussed.

It will also allocate appropriate time for a review of the progress of the internal audit function against the annual work plan, and to follow-up the implementation of corrective actions.

Meeting agenda

The chair of the audit, risk and improvement committee is to determine the agenda for each committee meeting.

It is recommended that the chair consult with other committee members, the general manager, the head of the internal audit function and external auditor prior to setting the agenda so that any urgent issues or risks that arise can be included.

The chair of the audit, risk and improvement committee is to decide an appropriate timescale for receiving the final agenda in the lead-up to the meeting.

Papers

The audit, risk and improvement committee is to decide in consultation with the general manager and the head of the internal audit function an appropriate timeframe for receiving papers and other necessary information to support agenda items to be considered at each committee meeting.

Minutes

Each audit, risk and improvement committee meeting must be minuted to preserve a record of the issues considered and the actions and decisions taken by the committee.

Audit, risk and improvement committee meeting minutes must:

- include a record of attendance
- cover each agenda item and document the discussion held and the outcome or conclusion from the discussions, including any recommendations, action points and/or allocation of tasks to relevant people
- be approved by the chair before circulation
- be provided to committee members, the governing body of the council, the general manager, the head of the internal audit function and external auditor
- be provided soon after the meeting date to ensure relevant individuals are made aware of any significant issues discussed at the meeting that need to be dealt with. The exact time period is to be determined by the committee and the general manager.

The minutes must be confirmed as an accurate record of the meeting at the next meeting of the audit, risk and improvement committee.

If any important details have been incorrectly recorded or omitted, they can be discussed and the minutes amended prior to confirmation at a subsequent meeting.

After the minutes are confirmed as an accurate record of the meeting, they must be signed by the chair.

All audit, risk and improvement committee members and observers should receive a copy of the minutes of all meetings.

Attendance of observers

Due to the sensitive nature of issues to be discussed, audit, risk and improvement committee meetings should not be open to the public.

In addition to audit, risk and improvement committee members, the general manager and the head of the internal audit function are to attend committee meetings as non-voting observers.

The NSW Auditor-General, as council's external auditor, or their representative, is to be invited to each committee meeting as an independent non-voting observer and can choose whether to attend.

The chair of the audit, risk and improvement committee can request the following people to attend a committee meeting or to meet with the committee in order to provide additional information relevant to its role:

- council's chief financial officer (or equivalent) given their knowledge of, and responsibility for, council's financial management
- the head of the council's risk management function
- senior managers
- any councillor
- any employee or contractor of the council, and/or
- any external independent expert or external party whose advice is needed (subject to confidentiality considerations).

These individuals must attend meetings where requested and, as far as is practicable, provide the information requested.

Observers have no voting rights at audit, risk and improvement committee meetings and can be excluded from a meeting by the chair of the committee at any time where necessary.

Private meetings

The audit, risk and improvement committee can hold closed meetings whenever it needs to discuss confidential or sensitive issues with only voting members of the committee present.

In addition to attending audit, risk and improvement committee meetings, the committee can meet privately at any time with the head of the internal audit function and/or external auditor without the general manager present. At least one private meeting must occur annually.

- ensuring new members receive appropriate induction, and
- managing expenditures relating to the committee.

Confidentiality

It is at the discretion of the governing body of the council whether audit, risk and improvement committee agendas, business papers, minutes and other reports are made available to the public.

Given the sensitivity of information it is likely to contain, it is recommended that all information pertaining to the audit, risk and improvement committee and internal audit activities is to be treated as confidential unless otherwise determined by the committee or a resolution of the council.

Secretariat

The general manager of a council is to appoint a council employee/s to provide secretariat support to the audit, risk and improvement committee.

The main functions of this role are:

- liaising with the chair to prepare agendas for audit, risk and improvement committee meetings
- ensure that committee papers are of an appropriate standard and provided with enough time to allow appropriate review and consideration
- recording minutes of meetings
- providing assistance to the chair in arranging meetings and council site visits
- supporting the chair to prepare reports for the council
- arranging appropriate meeting facilities and equipment
- keeping members abreast of developments affecting the council that may relate to the work of the committee
- maintaining a record of when member's terms of appointment are due for renewal or termination

Shared arrangements

If the audit, risk and improvement committee has been established by a joint organisation, the executive officer of the joint organisation is responsible for organising secretariat support.

Councils that share their audit, risk and improvement committee can also share their secretariat function if they choose to.

Access to council, staff, resources and information

It is essential for the audit, risk and improvement committee to be able to access the staff and information about the council it needs to review the matters listed in section 428A of the Local Government Act and the resources necessary to undertake its other responsibilities.

Council staff

A council's audit, risk and improvement committee must have direct and unrestricted access to the general manager and senior management of the council in order to fulfil its responsibilities.

Should the audit, risk and improvement committee need to meet with another council staff member or contractor to obtain information to fulfil its role, the chair of the committee is to obtain permission from the general manager before inviting the staff member or contractor to meet with the Committee.

Subject to the general manager's permission being given, the staff member or contractor must attend.

Any disputes between the general manager and audit, risk and improvement committee regarding access to council staff are to be resolved by the governing body.

Council resources and information

A council's audit, risk and improvement committee must have direct and unrestricted access to any council resources or information it needs to fulfil its responsibilities.

In its dealings with the council, the audit, risk and improvement committee should be mindful of the environment the council is operating in and the priorities that the general manager needs to manage.

The audit, risk and improvement committee should therefore keep to a minimum the demands it places on the council and utilise as far as is practicable, existing information to obtain the necessary level of assurance in relation to its responsibilities.

The audit, risk and improvement committee may only release council information to external parties that are assisting the committee to fulfil its responsibilities with the approval of the general manager, except when it is being provided to an external investigative, audit or oversight agency for the purpose of informing that agency of a matter that may warrant its attention.

After their engagement ends with a council, a chair or member of an audit, risk and improvement committee must not disclose or make use of any confidential information acquired in the course of their engagement with the council without the approval of the council.

External advice

The audit, risk and improvement committee can obtain any external legal or other professional/expert advice it needs to exercise its responsibilities. For example, where a council has implemented a specialised IT system, the committee can seek the expert opinion of an IT specialist to assist its review of its implementation.

To minimise the potential costs to council, the governing body and the chair of the audit, risk and improvement committee must agree at the start of each council term how costs are to be met, i.e.:

- the governing body will set a fixed budget at the start of each council term for external expenses, or
- the committee will seek the governing body's permission prior to engaging external advice.

Disputes

Members of an audit, risk and improvement committee should maintain an effective working relationship with each other and the council and try to resolve any differences they may have professionally.

In the event of a disagreement between the audit, risk and improvement committee and the general manager or other senior managers (for example, about findings or recommendations of audits), the dispute is to be resolved by the governing body of the council.

Unresolved disputes regarding compliance with statutory or other requirements are to be referred to the Secretary DPIE in writing.

Conduct

Audit, risk and improvement committee members are to be held to the same ethical and behavioural standards as other officials of the council and must comply with the council's code of conduct.

As required under the council's code of conduct, audit, risk and improvement committee members (a well as any council officials attending as observers) must declare and appropriately manage any conflicts of interest they may have in matters being dealt with by the committee.

Declarations of conflicts of interest and the actions taken to manage them must be recorded in the minutes of meetings.

Councils should identify the chairs and members of audit risk and improvement committees as 'designated persons' for the purposes of the council's code of conduct and require them to complete and submit returns of their interests.

Complaints of breaches of the council's code of conduct by audit, risk and improvement committee members are to be dealt with in accordance with the Procedures for the Administration of the Model Code of Conduct for Local Councils in NSW.

Under the Procedures, the general manager is responsible for managing and resolving any code of conduct complaints made against audit, risk and improvement committee members.

However, to safeguard the independence of audit, risk and improvement committee members, the general manager must consult with the governing body of the council prior to taking disciplinary action against Committee members under the Procedures.

Prequalified audit, risk and improvement committee members are also required to comply with the code of conduct governing the prequalification scheme.

Any proven breaches of the council's code of conduct should be reported by the council to the administrator of the prequalification scheme so that action can also be taken under that scheme, where appropriate.

Insurance

It is at each council's discretion whether professional indemnity and public liability insurance is required for chairs and members of audit, risk and improvement committee members.

In some cases, the chair or a member of an audit, risk and improvement committee may already be covered by the council's professional indemnity and public liability insurance policies or by their own insurance.

This will need to be ascertained by the council and chair or member on a case-by-case basis having regard to the terms of any relevant insurance policy.

Where a council determines that professional indemnity or public liability is absent but required, the chair or member can obtain their own insurance, or the council can consider obtaining it on their behalf.

Learning and development

Audit, risk and improvement committee chairs and members are encouraged to keep informed of current developments and to maintain and develop the skills, knowledge and capabilities necessary to exercise their functions effectively.

Several professional development networks and programs are available, for example, through organisations such as:

- the Australian Institute of Company Directors
- Chartered Accountants Australia and New Zealand
- The Actuaries Institute, and the
- Local Government Professionals Association.

Audit, risk and improvement chairs and members are also encouraged to serve on more than one local government committee to extend the breadth of their experience and understanding of councils and their operations and risks.

Review of Committee performance

It is important that the work of each council's audit, risk and improvement committee is regularly assessed, and the committee is held accountable for its performance.

This will ensure that the audit, risk and improvement committee is providing a valuable contribution to the council and enable the governing body to determine whether any changes to the committee's terms of reference or membership are required.

At least once each council term (i.e. four years) the governing body of the council is to conduct a review of the effectiveness of the audit, risk and improvement committee in conformance with the International Professional Practice Framework.

This will ensure that audit, risk and improvement committees are assessed consistently across all councils and allow councils to have confidence in the work of their committees.

To conduct the review, the governing body can:

- engage a suitably qualified external assessor or peer to undertake the review, or
- undertake the review itself and engage an external assessor or peer to conduct an independent evaluation of the findings.

The external assessor or peer should have specific skills relevant to the major risks of the council and a strong understanding of what constitutes best practice in relation to the operations and performance of audit, risk and improvement committees.

Review criteria

The review of the audit, risk and improvement committee's performance must consider:

- the appropriateness of the committee's terms of reference and whether these have been complied with
- the processes and procedures undertaken by the committee
- the collective performance of the committee – for example:
 - the quality and timeliness of assurance and advice provided by the committee to the governing body and general manager
 - the effectiveness of the committee in meeting its responsibilities
 - the relationship and quality of communication with the council and other stakeholders
- the individual performance of each member – for example, their:
 - understanding of the council, its key risk and internal controls
 - ability to act objectively and independently
 - preparation for committee meetings
 - contribution to the work of the committee through their participation in discussion and decision-making, skills and experience
- the performance of the chair, including whether the chair has (in addition to their performance as a member of the committee):
 - demonstrated positive leadership
 - maintained effective working relationships among audit, risk and improvement committee members and with the council, council's external auditor and the internal audit function
 - ensured the governing body and general manager was well informed and briefed on the strategic and technical aspects of internal audits and risk and control issues, and
 - lead effective committee meetings.
- the way the committee, external auditor, council and internal audit function work together to manage risk and support the council and how effective this is

- whether the committee has effectively reviewed the factors identified in section 428A of the Local Government Act and contributed to an improvement in these areas, and
- whether the composition of the committee is appropriate and whether the council should be assigned to a different tier under these guidelines.

When conducting the review, the governing body is to consider feedback on each member's performance by the chair and councillor member of the committee and the general manager.

Self-assessments by the chair and members of the audit, risk and improvement committee can also be used.

The governing body of council is also able to request the chair of the Committee to address the council and answer any questions about the operation of the committee.

The chair of the audit, risk and improvement committee is to develop an action plan for the governing body of the council to address any issues identified in the performance review and present it to the governing body at the four-yearly assessment meeting.

Annual attestation

It is important that councils are accountable to their communities for the efficacy of their internal controls and assurance mechanisms and the operations of their audit, risk and improvement committees.

The Local Government Regulation (clause #tbc) requires the general manager to attest each year in the council's annual report whether the council has complied with the following requirements in relation to its audit, risk and improvement committee, as detailed in these Guidelines:

- council's audit, risk and improvement committee is independent of the council and has three or more members according to the council's prescribed category as a tier 1, tier 2 or tier 3 council

- the chair and all members of the committee meet the eligibility and independence criteria required of their position, and have been appointed in accordance with prescribed membership term limits
- council's audit, risk and improvement committee operates according to terms of reference approved by the governing body of the council that are consistent with the approved Model Terms of Reference contained in these Guidelines
- council's audit, risk and improvement committee operates according to annual and four-yearly strategic plans endorsed by the governing body of the council
- council's audit, risk and improvement committee provides an annual assessment to the governing body each year, and a strategic assessment of all the matters listed in section 428A of the Local Government Act to the governing body each council term
- the council provides the committee with direct and unrestricted access to the general manager, senior management, council information and council resources so it can fulfil its responsibilities, and
- at least once each council term the governing body of the council reviews the effectiveness of the audit, risk and improvement committee.

Further information about annual attestation requirements is also detailed in the statutory framework section of these Guidelines.

Resignation of committee members

Where the Chair or a member of an audit, risk and improvement committee is unable to complete their term, or does not intend to seek reappointment after the expiry of their term, they should give sufficient notice to the chair (in the case of a committee member) and the governing body (in the case of the chair) prior to their resignation to enable the council to ensure a smooth transition to a new committee member.

The notice period is to be agreed by the governing body of the council and the committee.

A member of an audit, risk and improvement committee should have the opportunity to have an exit meeting with the Chair to discuss their reason for leaving and to provide feedback on their experience serving on the committee as well as any other issues.

Resigning chairs should have the opportunity to have an exit meeting with the mayor and general manager (if appropriate).

Dismissal of committee members

The governing body of a council can terminate via resolution the engagement of the chair or any member of the audit, risk and improvement committee under certain circumstances before the expiry of their terms.

Dismissal of any independent chair or member is to be reported to the Office of Local Government.

Prequalified members

A prequalified chair or member can be dismissed by the governing body before the expiry of their term where the chair or member has:

- breached the conditions of the prequalification scheme, or become ineligible under it
- breached the council's code of conduct
- performed unsatisfactorily or not to expectations, or
- declared, or is found to be in, a position of a conflict of interest which is unresolvable.

The council must also report the dismissal to the NSW government agency responsible for administering the prequalification scheme to ensure action can also be taken under the scheme, if necessary.

Non-prequalified members

A non-prequalified independent member of the audit, risk and improvement committee can be dismissed by the governing body before the natural expiry of their term where the chair or member has:

- breached the council's code of conduct
- performed unsatisfactorily or not to expectations
- declared, or is found to be in, a position of a conflict of interest with is unresolvable
- been declared bankrupt or found to be insolvent
- experienced an adverse change in business status
- been proven to be in a serious breach of their obligations under any NSW legislation, or
- experienced an adverse change in capacity or capability.

Councillor members

The position of a councillor member on an audit, risk and improvement committee can be terminated at any time by the governing body via resolution.

Core requirement 2:

Risk management

- Each council and joint organisation must implement a risk management framework that is consistent with current Australian standards for risk management

Guiding principles for risk management

- Each council must accept responsibility and accountability for risk management in the council
- Each council has a risk management framework that is appropriate for that council and is consistent with the accepted Australian risk management standard
- Risk management is an integral part of all council management, operations, functions and activities and it is clear who is responsible for managing each risk
- Each council supports the development of a positive risk culture
- Councils regularly review their risk management framework and can flexibly adapt their risk management activities to suit their operations and risk profiles
- Each council is accountable to the community for complying with its statutory obligation to adopt and maintain a risk management framework.

Standards

Each council must manage its strategic and operational risks and implement a risk management framework that is consistent with the current Australian risk management standard and appropriate for the council's risks.

It is recognised that each council will have different risk management requirements depending on its size, needs, budget, operational complexity and risk management maturity.

Councils have the flexibility under the Australian risk management standard to adapt the size, scope and delivery of their risk management framework provided it reflects the principles, key elements and processes set out in the standard for managing risks in any sized council or organisation.

Councils can adopt additional requirements that supplement those in the standard provided they do not conflict with the standard.

The current risk management standard at the time of the release of these Guidelines is AS ISO 31000:2018 Risk Management – Guidelines.

Under current licensing and copyright requirements, each council will need to purchase an individually licensed copy of AS ISO 31000:2018 from Standards Australia to obtain a full copy of the standard.

The following is a summary of the definitions, principles, key elements and process of AS ISO 31000:2018.

Definitions

The definition of 'risk' and 'risk management' adopted by councils as part of their risk management framework will be the same as that adopted in the current Australian risk management standard.

At the time of printing, AS ISO 31000:2018 defines:

- risk as the "effect of uncertainty on objectives, where an effect is a deviation from the expected. It can be positive, negative or both, and can address, create or result in opportunities and threats", and
- risk management as "coordinated activities to direct and control an organisation with regard to risk".

Principles

In summary, AS ISO 31000:2018 requires a council's approach to risk management to be based on the following eight specific principles to ensure it is effective:

- integrated - risk management is integrated into all council activities and decision-making processes
- structured and comprehensive - risk management is a structured and comprehensive process that achieves consistent and comparable results

- customised - the risk management framework and process are customised to the council
- inclusive - risk management is inclusive of all stakeholders and enables their knowledge, views and perceptions to be considered
- dynamic - risk management is dynamic and able to respond to changes and events in an appropriate and timely manner
- best available information - risk management decisions are based on the best available information and takes into account any limitations and uncertainties
- human and cultural factors - risk management takes into account human and cultural factors, and
- continual improvement - risk management is continuously and periodically evaluated and improved through learning and experience.

Key elements

To achieve these principles, AS ISO 31000:2018 requires each council to ensure its risk management framework demonstrates the following six elements:

Leadership and commitment

AS ISO 31000:2018 requires risk management to be supported by a positive culture that promotes and communicates risk management as part of everyday activities and decision-making.

The standard states that this culture can only exist when management (i.e. the governing body, general manager and senior staff) demonstrate strong leadership and commitment to risk management.

Practical measures the governing body and/or general manager can take under AS ISO 31000:2018 to exhibit strong leadership in risk management are set out further below.

Integration

AS ISO 31000:2018 requires that risk management be fully integrated within a council and made part of the council's purpose, governance, leadership, strategy, objectives and operations.

Risk is to be managed in every part of the council's organisational structure and every council employee be responsible for managing risk.

Design

AS ISO 31000:2018 requires that the design of a council's risk management framework:

- is based on the unique needs, characteristics and risks of the council, and its external and internal context
- demonstrates the council's continual commitment to risk management
- assigns risk management roles, responsibilities and accountabilities within the council
- allocates appropriate council resources for risk management, and
- effectively documents and communicates risk management across the council.

Implementation

AS ISO 31000:2018 requires that each council implements its risk management framework by:

- developing a risk management plan that provides structure for how the council will implement its risk management policy and conducts its risk management activities, and
- ensuring the council's risk management activities are clearly understood and practiced.

The plan should identify decision makers for risk within the council and ensure risk management processes and arrangements are well understood by the council and practiced.

Evaluation

AS ISO 31000:2018 requires that each council regularly evaluates the effectiveness of its risk management framework and determines whether it remains suitable.

Improvement

AS ISO 31000:2018 requires that each council continually adapts and improves the design of its risk management framework and how it is integrated throughout the council to help the council move to a higher level of risk maturity.

Process

AS ISO 31000:2018 provides each council with a systematic process to identify, assess and prioritise risks, decide how they will be managed, and document and communicate them across the council.

The process defined in AS ISO 31000:2018 consists of the following steps:

- defining the scope of the council's risk management activities to assist in planning the council's risk management approach
- establishing the internal and external context to ensure that the council understands the internal and external environment it operates in and how risk management will impact, and be impacted by these
- deciding the performance indicators the council will use to measure the effectiveness of its risk management framework and identify gaps between its actual and desired performance
- defining the council's risk criteria/appetite – that is, the amount and type of risk that the governing body is willing to take, or not take, in order to achieve its strategic plan and objectives
- conducting risk assessments to determine what risks need to be managed
- deciding risk treatment options
- developing risk treatment plans that document how controls will be implemented, and
- writing risk reports that will document and communicate the risk management framework to all staff and be used by the council to regularly review the risk management framework.

County councils and joint organisations

County councils and joint organisations have a lower risk profile than larger and more operationally complex general-purpose councils.

However, they are still responsible for the expenditure of public money, providing services (in the case of county councils), and delivering outcomes on behalf of their member councils and regions (in the case of joint organisations), and need to identify and manage risks appropriately.

Given their lower risk profiles, county councils and joint organisations can share the administration of their risk management framework with another council to reduce costs.

Alternatively, joint organisations can undertake the coordination and administration of their member councils' risk management frameworks on behalf of the councils.

Any shared risk management function must operate as an individual resource for each council in the shared arrangement and fulfil the statutory requirements for each council individually.

A shared risk management function should only be established and utilised by a county council or joint organisation where the shared function can maintain a high level of understanding and fulfilment of each council's risk management needs, as well as effective working and reporting relationships with the general manager and senior staff of each council in the shared arrangement.

Councils that establish a shared risk management function should develop and sign a formal agreement with the other councils in the shared arrangement which outlines how the shared arrangement will operate and costs are shared.

Resourcing

AS ISO 31000:2018 requires each council to ensure sufficient resources are allocated to implement the council's risk management framework and deliver the internal controls needed to ensure the council's risks are appropriately managed.

In practice, this responsibility will fall to the governing body and/or general manager of the council.

These resources include the necessary:

- human resources (with appropriate skills and experience)
- technology, equipment, tools and information management systems for managing risk
- documented processes and procedures, and
- professional development and training for staff to ensure they can fulfil their risk management responsibilities.

To ensure that the governing body and/or general manager makes informed budgeting decisions, the audit, risk and improvement committee is to advise of the resources it considers that the council needs to effectively implement its risk management framework, having regard to any budgetary constraints facing the council and the council's operational environment.

Roles and responsibilities

AS ISO 31000:2018 requires that each council assign risk management roles and responsibilities to all relevant roles within the council.

To ensure effective implementation, the standard also requires each council to demonstrate strong leadership and commitment to risk management.

In practice, this will see the general manager, governing body and council staff take on the following responsibilities:

Governing body – strategic leadership

Consistent with the governing body's strategic leadership role under section 223 of the Local Government Act, the governing body is responsible for setting the foundational elements of council's risk management framework and the 'tone at the top'.

This includes approving via resolution the council's risk criteria/appetite – a statement that conveys how much risk will be tolerated by the governing body in the pursuit of the strategic objectives for the council, and how risk is to be managed and decisions made within this context.

The council's risk criteria/appetite is to be approved in consultation with the audit, risk and improvement committee.

General manager – operational leadership

Consistent with the general manager's role under section 335 of the Local Government Act to conduct the day-to-day management of the council, the general manager has ultimate responsibility and accountability for risk management in the council.

The responsibility is also specified in the Local Government Regulation (clause #tbc).

This includes:

- overseeing the council's risk management framework and ensuring it is effectively communicated, implemented and reviewed regularly
- approving the council's risk management policy, plans and risk reports (where applicable)
- promoting and championing a positive risk culture

- assigning authority and accountability for risk management at appropriate levels and to appropriate staff in the council, and ensuring they are held accountable for these responsibilities
- annually attesting that council's risk management framework complies with statutory requirements (see below), and
- approving the council's implementation of corrective actions recommended by the council's internal audit function, external audit and audit, risk and improvement committee.

Depending on the council's needs, resources and organisational structure, and to assist the integration of risk management across the council, the general manager may wish to delegate responsibility for key aspects of the council's risk management framework to a senior manager or group of senior managers established for this purpose.

The delegate would report to the general manager on risk management issues.

An example risk management policy is provided at Appendix 5.

Risk management function – oversight and facilitation

Each council is to establish a risk management function responsible for the day-to-day activities required to implement the council's risk management framework and provide specialist risk management skills and knowledge.

The council's risk management function is a key support to the general manager in meeting their risk management responsibilities and reports directly to the general manager or their delegate.

Each council will have the flexibility to establish its risk management function based on its structure, resourcing, risk management needs and risk management maturity.

Regardless of its structure and composition, the role and responsibilities of the risk management function should include:

- supporting the general manager by coordinating and providing clear and concise risk information, advice and/or reports that can be used in planning and decision-making
- coordinating the various activities relating to risk management within the council
- helping to build a risk management culture within the council, including facilitating and driving risk management at the strategic and operational level within the council and ensuring consistency in practice
- ensuring there are easily accessible systems and processes in place to enable all staff to conveniently undertake risk management in their day-to-day work
- ensuring risk management processes are applied consistently across the council
- organising appropriate staff risk management training and development
- developing and maintaining a risk reporting framework to enable regular advising/reporting of key risks, and the management of those risks, to the general manager or their delegate
- supporting council staff with their risk management obligations and providing staff with advice and tools to ensure risk management compliance
- implementing effective risk management communication mechanisms and information system/s
- establishing and maintaining an ongoing monitoring system to track the risk management activities undertaken within council and assessing the need for further action
- assessing risk management information for completeness, accuracy and consistency (for example, risk registers, risk treatment plans), and
- preparing advice or reports for the audit, risk and improvement committee and attending committee meetings (where requested).

In order to fulfil its role, the risk management function needs to:

- have a well-developed understanding of the council and its operations

- have the skills, knowledge and leadership qualities required to support and drive risk management
- have sufficient authority to intervene in instances where risk management efforts are being hampered by a lack of cooperation or through lack of risk management capability or maturity, and
- be able to add value to the risk management process by providing guidance and support in managing difficult risk, or risks spread across a number of the council's business units or operational areas.

Dual responsibilities

It is important that the risk management function is independent of line management to reduce the potential for management influence on the risks that are reported on, and to ensure independence.

Where risk management oversight or facilitation activities are performed by council staff with other council responsibilities, the council must put safeguards in place to limit any cognitive bias (which can lead to faulty risk assessments and decision-making errors).

Depending on the specific needs and circumstances of the council, these safeguards could include:

- the audit, risk and improvement committee being informed of the other council responsibilities the risk management function has, including reporting lines, responsibilities and expectations related to the role/s
- any potential issues or conflicts of interest arising from these other roles being formally documented and communicated to the committee
- risk management staff being prohibited from undertaking risk management evaluations and reviews in relation to the council operations they are responsible for, and/or
- the committee regularly assessing that the safeguards put in place are effective.

Internal audit function – review and assurance

Council's internal audit function is responsible for reviewing and providing advice to the audit, risk and improvement committee and the council on the effectiveness of the council's risk management framework.

Given the need to maintain the independence and objectivity of the internal audit function, the following boundaries are to apply with respect to the role of the internal audit function in relation to the council's risk management framework:

- it is to be clear that council management remains responsible for risk management
- the internal audit function is to provide advice and challenge and support management's decision-making, as opposed to taking risk management decisions themselves
- the internal audit function should not:
 - manage any of the risks on behalf of the council
 - set the council's risk criteria/appetite
 - impose risk management processes
 - decide or implement risk responses, or
 - be held accountable for risk management activities.

Audit, risk and improvement committee – advice and assurance

An audit, risk and improvement committee's role in relation to risk management is to support the governing body and general manager to ensure that the council's risk management framework is appropriate and operationally effective.

The breadth and depth of this assurance role is to be determined by the council and the audit, risk and improvement committee and could include:

- assessing whether risks at all levels are identified, assessed and reviewed regularly by the council

- being involved in the regular review of the council's risk register
- reviewing the integration of risk management into business planning and program implementation activities, and/or
- providing assurance in relation to the management of risk or governance arrangements on individual projects, programs or activities.

Appendix 4 provides further examples of the activities the audit, risk and improvement committee could perform in relation to risk management.

Review and reporting

Quarterly reporting

Each council is to ensure its risk management framework is regularly monitored and reviewed to ensure it is relevant, effective and complies with the current Australian risk management standard.

Each council is to base its ongoing monitoring and review process on its own needs, however, this should include at a minimum, providing quarterly advice from the risk management function to the general manager or their delegate.

This will ensure that risks are being correctly identified, prioritised and treated, and any emerging problems are known and rectified quickly.

Annual assessment

Each council's risk management function is to conduct an annual self-assessment of the council's risk management framework.

The annual self-assessment is to report to the general manager whether the council's risk management framework:

- complies with statutory requirements
- is sufficiently resourced
- operates effectively, this includes whether:

- the internal control framework appropriately reflects the council's risk criteria/appetite
- risks are formally considered when developing and implementing all council policies, programs, projects and other activities, including procurement
- risk management covers all relevant risk categories including strategic, operational, compliance, reputational and reporting risks
- major risks have been identified and assessed by the council and appropriate risk treatments have been implemented that reflect the council's risk criteria
- the council's internal controls are effective and appropriate
- the council's risk register and risk profile are current and appropriate
- risk information is captured and communicated in a timely manner across the council, enabling management and staff to carry out their responsibilities, and
- the council's risk management policies, procedures and plans are being complied with.

The general manager should discuss the annual assessment of the council's risk management function with the governing body and audit, risk and improvement committee at the council's strategic assurance meeting held each council term.

Strategic assessment

The Local Government Regulation (clause #tbc) requires that a council's audit, risk and improvement committee keep the implementation of a council's risk management framework under review and provide advice to the council on its implementation.

A council's audit, risk and improvement committee must provide an assessment of the effectiveness of the council's risk management framework to the governing body each council term, as part of the committee's four-yearly strategic assessment.

As part of the audit, risk and improvement committee's assessment of the council's risk management function, it should consider whether:

- the council is providing sufficient resources for risk management
- the council's risk management framework complies with statutory requirements, and
- the council's risk management framework operates effectively, is being complied with and supports the achievement of the council's strategic goals and objectives

The general manager is to develop an action plan for the governing body to address any risk management issues identified by the committee.

The audit, risk and improvement committee and general manager should discuss the strategic assessment and action plan with the governing body at the council's strategic assurance meeting held each council term.

Performance measures

To ensure the effectiveness of council's risk management activities can be regularly monitored and reviewed, each council must ensure that it:

- assigns performance targets to risk management activities that can be measured against goals and objectives, and
- can obtain the data needed to measure the impact of the council's risk management framework.

Annual attestation

The Local Government Regulation (clause #tbc) requires the general manager to attest each year in the council's annual report whether the council has complied with the following requirements in relation to its risk management activities:

- council has adopted a risk management framework that is consistent with current Australian risk management standards and appropriate for the council's risks, and
- the council's audit, risk and improvement committee reviews the implementation of the council's risk management framework and issues an assessment of the effectiveness of the council's risk management framework to the governing body each council term.

Further information on annual attestation requirements is provided in the statutory framework section of these Guidelines.

Core requirement 3:

Internal audit

- Each council and joint organisation must have an independent internal audit function that reports to the audit, risk and improvement committee and is consistent with current international standards for internal audit

Guiding principles for internal audit

- The internal audit function operates independently and with appropriate expertise in a manner that is appropriate for the council.
- The internal audit function has access to all council information necessary to fulfil its role and responsibilities
- The internal audit function is appropriately positioned in the council's governance framework to ensure its work complements the work of other internal and external assurance providers
- The internal audit function has a comprehensive work plan linked to the council's strategic objectives and current and emerging risks
- The audit, risk and improvement committee receives relevant and timely advice from the internal audit function to ensure the committee can fulfil its role and responsibilities
- The internal audit function operates in a manner consistent with accepted international standards
- The work of the internal audit function is thoroughly planned and executed, risk-based, client-focused and linked to the council's strategic goals
- The internal audit function adds value to the council and is held accountable by the committee and governing body for its performance, and
- Each council is accountable to the community for the effective implementation of its internal audit function.

Internal audit is defined in the International Professional Practices Framework issued by the Institute of Internal Auditors as 'an independent, objective assurance and consulting activity designed to add value and improve an organisation's operations. It helps an organisation accomplish its objective by bringing a systematic, disciplined approach to evaluate and improve the effectiveness of risk management, control and governance processes'.

A council's internal audit function must operate independently of the council and internal audit activities cannot be subject to direction by the council.

To ensure that the internal audit function remains independent from council management it must have a dual reporting line that reports:

- administratively to the general manager or a sufficiently senior role in the council to ensure the internal audit function fulfils its responsibilities, and
- functionally to the audit, risk and improvement committee.

Resourcing

The governing body and general manager of the council must ensure that the council's internal audit function is sufficiently resourced to effectively carry out its work. The chair of the audit, risk and improvement committee should be consulted on the resourcing required.

The audit, risk and improvement committee's resourcing recommendations are to be minuted by the committee.

Independence

Each council in NSW, (including county council and joint organisation) must have an internal audit function to provide an independent unbiased assessment of the council's operations and risk and control activities.

Internal audit charter

It is important that council's internal audit function has clear guidance on how it should serve the audit, risk and improvement committee and the council, and that the committee and council has input into how the internal audit function will operate.

This will ensure there is no ambiguity between the audit, risk and improvement committee, the council or the internal audit function and that the performance of the internal audit function can be assessed.

The Local Government Regulation (clause #tbc) requires each council to adopt an internal audit charter, consistent with the approved Model Internal Audit Charter (Appendix 6), to guide how internal audit will be undertaken by the council and measure its effectiveness.

The internal audit charter is to be developed by the audit, risk and improvement committee in consultation with the general manager and the head of the internal audit function and approved via resolution by the governing body of the council.

The Local Government Regulation (clause #tbc) allows councils to include additional provisions in their internal audit charter so long as they are not inconsistent with the approved Model Internal Audit Charter.

The audit, risk and improvement committee is to review the council's internal audit charter annually in consultation with the general manager and the head of the internal audit function.

Role of the general manager

Consistent with their role under the Local Government Act (section 355) to conduct the day-to-day management of the council, the general manager has administrative responsibility for internal audit under the Local Government Regulation (clause #tbc).

This means that the general manager is responsible for:

- advising the governing body on the resources required for the effective functioning of the internal audit function
- ensuring appropriate administrative support is provided to support the work of the internal audit function - for example, access to council's human resources networks, payroll, work health and safety, office facilities and resources, council information etc
- ensuring that the internal audit function is appropriately positioned within the council to work with external bodies and internal business units and fulfil its role and responsibilities
- ensuring the internal audit function complies with the International Professional Practices Framework, and
- annually attesting, on behalf of the council, that the council is fulfilling its statutory obligations in relation to internal audit.

The general manager has no role in the performance of the internal audit function - for example, the conduct of internal audits, the audit techniques used, or the reporting of internal audit findings to the audit, risk and improvement committee.

Delegation

The general manager can, in consultation with the governing body of the council and the audit, risk and improvement committee, delegate their functions in relation to the oversight of the council's internal audit function to another role in the council that is sufficiently senior to ensure the internal audit function meets its responsibilities.

In making a delegation, consideration should be given to how the delegation will influence the internal audit function's ability to achieve the internal audit charter given the:

- seniority and expertise of the delegate and demands placed on them by their other roles and responsibilities in the council

- support available to the delegate to successfully execute their delegation in relation to internal audit
- complexity of the council's core business
- risk profile of the council
- expectations of stakeholders, and
- likely demands placed on the internal audit function.

Role of the audit, risk and improvement committee

Under the Local Government Regulation (clause #tbc), the audit, risk and improvement committee exercises functional oversight of a council's internal audit function to ensure it operates independently from the council.

This means that the audit, risk and improvement committee is responsible for:

- assisting the governing body to identify the resources necessary for the effective functioning of the internal audit function
- setting the annual and four-yearly work plans for the internal audit function, including the audits that will be completed
- assessing the findings and recommendations of completed audits and providing the committee's advice and opinion on issues raised to the general manager and governing body of the council
- developing the internal audit charter that will guide the work of the internal audit function and how it operates, and
- reviewing the performance of the internal audit function.

Structure

Each council will have different internal audit function requirements depending on the council's size, needs, budget and operational complexity and can either:

- establish an internal audit function for their own exclusive use, or
- share their internal audit function with another council, county council or joint organisation.

For cost and administrative efficiency, councils are also able to:

- establish an in-house internal audit function comprising of council staff/contractors, and/or
- outsource their internal audit function to an external provider/s – for example, a private sector accounting firm, internal audit firm, internal audit contractor etc.

These options will assist councils, county councils and joint organisations:

- to establish their internal audit function in the most cost-effective way
- in remote locations that may find it difficult to appoint or retain the staff necessary to support a stand-alone internal audit function
- to access a larger resource pool than would be available to a single council, and
- create efficiencies through common systems, shared knowledge and internal audit tools.

When deciding the most appropriate way to structure a council's internal audit function, the general manager should consider the viability and capacity of a shared internal audit function to achieve the council's internal audit charter given the:

- size of the council in terms of both staffing levels and budget
- geographical and functional distribution of the council's operations
- complexity of the council's core business
- risk profile of the council
- expectations of stakeholders, and
- likely demands placed on the internal audit function by other councils in the shared arrangement.

Whatever structure is adopted, the head of a council's internal audit function must:

- be a council employee and cannot be outsourced, other than through a shared arrangement with another council, and
- meet the eligibility and independence criteria for the position.

This is to ensure that the council retains strategic control of the internal audit function and can actively monitor its performance.

County councils

County councils may enter into a shared arrangement with one of their constituent councils or another county council.

Joint organisations

Joint organisations that do not host a shared internal audit function for the use of their member councils can enter into a shared arrangement with a member council.

In-house internal audit function

An in-house internal audit function is where internal auditors and other staff (where required) are employed by the council to conduct the internal audits and other activities in the audit, risk and improvement committee's annual and four-yearly strategic work plan.

The advantages of establishing an in-house internal audit function may include:

- council retaining ownership of internal audit information
- confidentiality of sensitive information contained in audits
- stronger direction and oversight by the council of the internal audit function with more direct control over the quality of audits conducted

- internal auditors having council-specific knowledge and experience that delivers better audit results
- greater agility to respond quickly to emerging issues, and
- the retention of corporate knowledge within the council.

Disadvantages may include:

- challenges attracting and retaining suitable staff
- specialist skills may not be available in-house
- reduced flexibility, and
- the need to provide council facilities and office space for internal audit personnel.

Councils that establish an in-house internal audit function are not limited to employing staff members and can supplement the internal audit team's work with audits undertaken by external providers where necessary.

Councils that have been categorised as a tier 2 or tier 3 council are encouraged to establish an in-house internal audit function given their:

- significant assets
- higher risk profiles
- higher levels of expenditure, and
- more complex transactions and operations.

Head of an in-house internal audit function

Each council's internal audit function must be led by a staff member with sufficient skills, knowledge, experience and integrity to ensure it undertakes its role appropriately, meets its responsibilities to the audit, risk and improvement committee and makes a valuable contribution to the council.

The head of an in-house internal audit function (described as the 'chief audit executive' in the International Professional Practices Framework) also needs to report to the general manager or a sufficiently senior role in the council that ensures the internal audit function fulfils its responsibilities.

For some councils with larger budgets and higher risks, the head of the internal audit function will require the support of a dedicated internal audit team to fulfil the internal audit charter.

For other smaller councils, their size and risk profile may not justify additional internal audit staff and the head of the internal audit function will be sufficient.

The head of the internal audit function may also have other council responsibilities outside of internal audit.

Role and responsibilities

For all in-house internal audit functions, regardless of size, the key responsibilities of the head of the internal audit function include:

- managing the day-to-day activities of the council's internal audit activities to ensure they add value to council
- managing the council's internal audit budget
- supporting the operation of the audit, risk and improvement committee
- approving internal audit project plans, conducting or supervising audits and assessments and providing independent advice to the committee
- monitoring the council's implementation of corrective actions that arise from the findings of audits
- fulfilling the committee's annual work plan and four-yearly strategic plan
- ensuring the council's internal audit activities comply with statutory requirements
- managing internal audit personnel and ensuring that they have the skills necessary to fulfil the role and responsibilities of the internal audit function (where appropriate), and
- contract management and oversight of supplementary external providers (where appropriate).

Eligibility criteria

To fulfil these responsibilities, the head of the internal audit function:

- must be a council employee and cannot be outsourced, other than through a shared arrangement with another council – this is to ensure that the council retains strategic control of the internal audit function and is able to actively monitor the performance of the internal audit function
- must be independent, impartial, unbiased and objective when performing their work and free from conflicts of interest
- should possess the following skills, knowledge and experience to effectively carry out their role:
 - the credibility to ensure they can negotiate on a reasonably equal footing with the general manager (or their delegate), governing body and audit, risk and improvement committee
 - the skills, knowledge and personal qualities necessary to lead credible and accepted internal audit activities in the council
 - strong experience overseeing internal audit
 - appropriate qualifications and professional certifications, and
 - local government experience (preferred).

The head of the internal audit function must also operate and conduct their internal audit activities in accordance with the International Professional Practices Framework, including its Code of Ethics.

As a council employee, the head of the internal audit function must comply with all relevant council policies and procedures as required by other council staff members, including the council's code of conduct.

Independence

It is important that the head of an in-house internal audit function has the functional independence to ensure that this role has the freedom necessary to independently assess and report on the way council operates.

As a safeguard, the Local Government Regulation (clause #tbc) requires the general manager to consult with the chair of the audit, risk and improvement committee before appointing or changing the employment conditions of the head of the internal audit function (including disciplinary measures).

Where dismissal occurs, the general manager must report to the governing body advising of the reasons why the head of the internal audit function was dismissed.

Where the chair of the audit, risk and improvement committee has any concerns about the treatment of the head of the internal audit function, or any action taken that may compromise the head of the internal audit function's ability to undertake their functions independently, they can report their concerns to the governing body of the council.

The head of the internal audit function is required to confirm at least annually to the audit, risk and improvement committee the independence of internal audit activities from the council.

Access to council staff and information

All internal audit personnel, including the head of an in-house internal audit function have direct and unrestricted access to council staff, the audit risk and improvement committee and council information and resources necessary to undertake their role and responsibilities.

All council staff and contractors should have unrestricted access to the head of the internal audit function to allow them to alert them to emerging risks or internal audit related issues.

Internal audit team

Any other staff members appointed to council's in-house internal audit function report directly to the head of the internal audit function.

As council employees, internal audit staff must comply with all relevant council policies and procedures including the council's code of conduct.

In-house internal auditors must also conduct internal audit activities in accordance with the International Professional Practices Framework.

Internal audit should be performed by professionals with an appropriate level of understanding of the council's culture, systems and processes to provide assurance that the internal controls in place are sufficient to mitigate the risks, that the governance processes are adequate and that organisational goals and objectives are met.

In-house internal auditors should therefore possess the following skills, knowledge and experience to effectively carry out their role:

- the skills, knowledge and experience necessary to conduct internal audit activities in the council – for example:
 - accounting
 - finance
 - economics
 - governance
 - management
 - law
 - taxation
 - fraud and corruption
 - IT
- effective interpersonal and communication skills to ensure they can partner with council staff effectively and collaboratively
- honesty, integrity and due diligence, and
- appropriate qualifications and professional certifications.

Local government experience or expertise is also strongly preferred.

Dual responsibilities

To ensure the internal audit function's independence and objectivity, it is best practice that the head of the in-house internal audit function and any other members of an in-house internal audit team have no other council responsibilities other than internal audit.

However, it is recognised that some councils may find it difficult to employ a stand-alone head of an in-house internal audit function or other supporting internal auditors due to the cost involved, the council's location and/or that the size of the council's operations and risk profile or the council's organisational structure may not warrant stand-alone employees.

Councils can therefore combine the head of the internal audit function's role and/or the role of a member of the internal audit team with another council role or responsibilities provided there are adequate safeguards put in place by the council to limit any real or perceived bias or conflicts of interest that may lead to faulty decision-making and cognitive bias.

An internal audit role must not be combined with the role of the general manager, chief financial officer or risk management function as it will create conflicts of interest that cannot be resolved.

Councils can also share their head of the internal audit function with another council, county council or joint organisation as part of a shared arrangement.

Depending on the specific needs and circumstances of the council, safeguards could include:

- any potential issues or conflicts of interest arising from a dual role being formally documented in council's internal audit charter
- the audit, risk and improvement committee, or another suitably qualified and independent party, reviewing internal audit briefs, findings and recommendations before they are finalised where they concern any key risks overseen by the head of the internal audit function or internal audit team member in another role
- the head of the internal audit function or an internal audit team member not having responsibility for managing any risks or implementing any audit recommendations or corrective actions in their other role/s, and/or
- the committee including an assessment of the independence and objectivity (for internal audit purposes) of the head of the internal audit function or any internal audit team members with a dual role in their annual assessment report to the governing body.

The endorsement of the governing body, in consultation with the audit, risk and improvement committee is also required before any combined roles can commence.

Where the head of the internal audit function has a dual role in a council, they are to remain independent and report functionally to the audit, risk and improvement committee on their internal audit responsibilities.

For other council responsibilities, the head of the internal audit function reports functionally through normal council reporting lines to the general manager.

Outsourced internal audit function

Where a council outsources their internal audit function, the internal audits required by the audit, risk and improvement committee are undertaken by an external provider such as an internal audit or accounting firm, or an individual practitioner.

Contract management is overseen by an employee within the council.

The advantages of using external providers for internal audit activities may include:

- flexibility
- access to a wide range of expertise and experience, especially outside of local government and provide expertise the council may not have
- provides a window to better practice methods that small councils may find difficult to access
- the ability to purchase services as and when required
- can increase internal audit's independence from the council
- overcoming challenges recruiting a head of an internal audit function or internal audit staff, and
- potential to negotiate lower fee-for-service costs.

Disadvantages may include:

- increased costs
- potential loss of corporate knowledge from the council
- difficulty building and maintaining professional relationships between council management and external contractors
- reduced oversight and control of internal audit activities
- additional in-house staff time required to source and manage external providers and contracts
- the external provider lacking council-specific knowledge
- internal audit coordinator is unlikely to be audit trained and may not have the knowledge to ensure audit quality is maintained, and
- potential confidentiality breaches.

Given their size, resources, geographical isolation, risk profiles and complexity of operations, tier 1 councils are encouraged, at a minimum, to establish an outsourced internal audit function.

Head of an outsourced internal audit function

Compared to the head of an in-house internal audit function which personally conducts or supervises internal audits and provides their personal opinions and recommendations to the audit, risk and improvement committee, the head of an outsourced internal audit function will, in practice, primarily be a coordination and administrative role.

The key responsibilities of any council staff member assigned responsibility for leading an outsourced internal audit function is to include:

- contract management
- managing internal audit budget
- ensuring the external provider completes internal audits in line with the audit, risk and improvement committee's annual plan and four-yearly strategic plan
- forward audit reports by the external provider to the committee
- act as a liaison between the external provider and the committee

- monitoring the council's implementation of corrective actions that arise from the findings of audits and reporting progress to the Committee, and
- assisting the committee to ensure the council's internal audit activities comply with statutory requirements.

To fulfil these responsibilities, the head of an outsourced function:

- reports functionally to the audit, risk and improvement committee
- must be free from conflicts of interest
- must be a council employee and cannot be outsourced, other than through a shared arrangement with another council, county council or joint organisation - this is to ensure that the council retains control of the internal audit function and is able to actively monitor the performance of the external provider
- should possess the following skills, knowledge and experience to effectively carry out their role:
 - a good understanding of the work of audit, risk and improvement committees and internal audit, and
 - the skills, knowledge and personal qualities necessary to manage the council's contract with the external provider and liaise between the external provider and the audit, risk and improvement committee.

As a council employee, the head of an outsourced function must comply with all relevant council policies and procedures as required by other council staff members, including the council's code of conduct.

Dual responsibilities

The head of an outsourced internal audit function can be assigned other roles and responsibilities in the council.

Where the head of an outsourced function has a dual role in a council, they are to remain independent and report functionally to the audit, risk and improvement committee in relation to their internal audit responsibilities.

For other council responsibilities, the head of an outsourced function reports functionally through normal council reporting lines to the general manager.

Councils can combine the head of an outsourced function's role with another council role or responsibilities provided that there are adequate safeguards put in place by the council to limit any real or perceived bias or conflicts of interest.

Depending on the specific needs and circumstances of the council, safeguards could include:

- any potential issues or conflicts of interest arising from a dual role being formally documented in council's internal audit charter
- the audit, risk and improvement committee endorsing the dual roles before they can commence
- the head of the outsourced function not having responsibility for managing any risks or implementing any audit recommendations or corrective actions in their other role/s, and/or
- the committee including an assessment of the independence and objectivity (for internal audit purposes) of the head of the outsourced function in their annual assessment report to the governing body.

External provider/s

It is important that any external provider engaged by a council is independent and can objectively assess and report on the way council operates.

To ensure the independence of an external provider, the head of the outsourced function is to ensure the external provider:

- does not conduct any audits on specific council operations or area that they have worked on within the last two years
- is not the same auditor conducting the council's external audit
- is not the auditor of any contractors of the council that may be possibly subject to the internal audit, and

- is able to meet the council's statutory internal audit obligations.

The head of the outsourced function must also consult with the audit, risk and improvement committee and general manager regarding the appropriateness of the skills, knowledge and experience of any external provider before they are engaged by the council.

Chair of the audit, risk and improvement committee

The chair of an audit, risk and improvement committee that oversees an outsourced internal audit function is likely to have greater responsibilities than that of an in-house internal audit function.

As the head of an outsourced function is largely a coordination/administrative role, committee members, and in particular the chair of the Committee, will do the 'heavy lifting' and be the primary source of advice on the findings and recommendations of audits conducted by the external provider and assurance to the council.

Councils that establish an outsourced internal audit function must ensure that their audit, risk and improvement committee has the capacity and capability to undertake this increased role.

Shared internal audit function

Under the Local Government Regulation (clause #tbc) councils can:

- share an internal audit function with another council or joint organisation as part of an independent shared arrangement
- utilise the internal audit function established by their joint organisation that is shared by member councils
- for county councils - share an internal audit function with a constituent council, or

- for joint organisations - share an internal audit function with a member council.

Councils can establish an in-house or outsourced internal audit function as part of a shared arrangement.

A shared internal audit function must operate as a standalone internal audit function for each participating council in the shared arrangement and satisfy statutory requirements for each participating council.

A shared internal audit function should only be established and utilised where all participating councils can be confident that the shared function can deliver a high level of understanding and fulfilment of each council's internal audit needs and maintain effective working and reporting relationships with each participating council in the shared arrangement.

Councils that establish a shared internal audit function should develop and sign a formal agreement with the other councils in the shared arrangement which outlines how the shared arrangement will operate and how costs will be shared.

Implementation

Given the administrative complexity of an internal audit function shared between councils and reporting to multiple governing bodies and general managers, the following arrangements are recommended:

- the internal audit function is hosted by one of the councils, county councils or joint organisations in the shared arrangement
- the head of the internal audit function and any other internal audit team members are employees of the host council
- the head of the internal audit function reports administratively to the general manager (or their delegate) of the host council, and
- the general manager of the host council can only appoint or dismiss the head of the internal audit function in consultation with the general managers and audit, risk and improvement committees of each participating council.

For internal audit functions established by joint organisations and shared between member councils it is recommended that:

- the internal audit function is physically located at the offices of the joint organisation or a member council
- the head of the internal audit function reports administratively to the executive officer of the joint organisation
- the head of the internal audit function and any internal audit staff are employees of the joint organisation, and
- the Executive officer of the joint organisation can only appoint or dismiss the head of the internal audit function in consultation with the general managers and audit, risk and improvement committees of each member council.

Head of a shared internal audit function

In-house function

The head of a shared in-house internal audit function needs to be able to:

- liaise with the governing body and general manager of each participating council about that council's internal audit activities
- implement the annual work plan and four-yearly strategic plan for each council
- conduct or oversee the individual audits of each council and monitoring the implementation of corrective actions
- manage any contractual arrangements with external providers on behalf of each council (where required)
- attend the audit, risk and improvement committee meetings of each respective council on behalf of that council, and
- maintain separate and confidential information for each council.

Outsourced function

The head of a shared outsourced internal audit function needs to be able to:

- manage contracts with external providers on behalf of all councils in the shared arrangement

- liaise with the audit, risk and improvement committee and general manager of each council
- coordinate the completion of audits by the external provider in line with each council's annual plan and four-yearly strategic plan
- provide audit reports by the external provider to the relevant committee and general manager and coordinate council responses
- monitor the implementation by each council of corrective actions that arise from the findings of audits and reporting progress to the committee
- assist each council's committee to ensure the council's internal audit activities comply with statutory requirements, and
- maintain separate and confidential information for each council.

Workplans

The work of each council's internal audit function will be guided by the strategic four-yearly workplan and annual workplan developed by the audit, risk and improvement committee (see core requirement 1).

Performing internal audits

It is essential that a council's internal audit function performs the council's internal audits to a high and consistent standard and that the findings and recommendations that arise from audits can be relied upon by the audit, risk and improvement committee and the council.

Each council's internal audits must be performed in accordance with the requirements of the International Professional Practices Framework.

The internal audit tools, techniques and methodologies used by the internal audit function must be approved by the audit, risk and improvement committee.

Where risk information or ratings are used during the internal audit process, they must be developed and applied consistently with the current Australian risk management standard.

Audit reports

The head of the internal audit function must provide the findings and recommendations of internal audits to the audit, risk and improvement committee at the end of each audit.

The audit, risk and improvement committee will determine whether audit reports should be distributed to committee members out-of-session as they are completed, or at each quarterly meeting of the committee.

Each internal audit report written must reflect the requirements of the International Professional Practices Framework.

This includes:

- necessary background information, including the objective and scope of the audit
- the audit processes and methodology used
- findings and recommendations based on the audit's objectives, prioritised according to their level of risk
- recommended remedial actions to address problems identified which have been prioritised according to risk, and
- a response or action plan from the general manager and/or responsible senior managers of the council.

The head of the internal audit function must provide a draft of each report to the responsible senior manager/s so that a response to each recommendation from each relevant business unit can be included in the final report that is submitted to the audit, risk and improvement committee.

The audit, risk and improvement committee must agree with the general manager the maximum time period the general manager has to approve and provide the council's response to the committee.

Responsible senior managers will have the right to reject recommended corrective action/s on reasonable grounds but should discuss their position with the head of the internal audit function or the chair of the audit, risk and improvement committee before finalising the council's position with the general manager. Reasons for rejecting the recommendation/s must be included in the final audit report.

For those recommendations that are accepted, responsible senior managers are required to ensure that:

- an action plan is prepared for each recommendation that assigns responsibility for implementation to a council staff member/s and timeframes for implementation
- all corrective actions are implemented within proposed timeframes, and
- the head of the internal audit function is provided regular updates, or as otherwise reasonably requested, in relation to the implementation of the internal audit action plan.

Where corrective actions are not implemented within agreed timeframes, the audit, risk and improvement committee can invite the responsible senior manager to explain why implementation has not occurred and how the resulting risk is being addressed in the interim.

The audit, risk and improvement committee can raise any concerns it may have about the council's response to internal audit reports with the general manager and in the committee's quarterly report to the governing body so that they are aware of the risks posed to the council.

Ongoing monitoring

The head of the internal audit function should establish an ongoing monitoring system to track the internal audits undertaken for the council and follow-up council's progress in implementing corrective actions.

Compliance with regulatory requirements and internal audit standards could also be included as part of ongoing monitoring and self-assessment.

If necessary, any problems identified must be reported to the audit, risk and improvement committee and general manager to ensure they can be rectified quickly before their consequences escalate.

The audit, risk and improvement committee can raise any concerns it has that may arise between meetings with the governing body via an additional report where needed. The chair of the committee can also request to meet with the mayor.

This will ensure that the governing body is fully aware of significant emerging risks posed to the council.

Policies and procedures

The general manager, in consultation with the audit, risk and improvement committee, must develop and maintain policies and procedures to guide the operation of the council's internal audit function and the performance of internal audits.

These policies and procedures could include:

- the structure and resourcing of the internal audit function
- how internal audits will be conducted, reported, implemented and monitored
- audit methodology
- timeframes for reporting and council's response to recommendations
- how any internal audit-related disputes will be resolved
- the internal audit function's access to council staff, resources and information
- how the performance of the internal audit function will be reviewed
- communication between the audit, risk and improvement committee and internal audit function, and the internal audit function and the general manager, and for consideration and action before their consequences escalate.

- information management including document retention, security and access to audit reports.

Providing advice to the audit, risk and improvement committee

Ongoing reporting to the audit, risk and improvement committee is essential to ensure that the committee is kept informed of matters considered by the internal audit function and any emerging issues that may require reporting to the governing body or general manager.

Quarterly updates

The head of the internal audit function is to ensure that the audit, risk and improvement committee is advised at each of the committee's quarterly meetings of

- the internal audits completed during that quarter
- progress in implementing the annual work plan, and
- progress made implementing corrective actions arising from any past internal audits.

The way this information is communicated is to be decided by the audit, risk and improvement committee in consultation with the head of the internal audit function.

Ongoing advice

The head of the internal audit function can meet with the chair of the audit, risk and improvement committee at any time, as necessary, between committee meetings.

This is particularly important to ensure that any urgent or emerging issues identified by the internal audit function can be quickly reported to the audit, risk and improvement committee

Internal audit documents

Internal audit documentation includes any information or documents produced or obtained by a council's internal audit function that relates to the internal audit activities of the council.

All internal audit documents:

- are for internal use only, subject to the requirements of the Government Information (Public Access) Act 2009 (GIPA Act)
- are to remain the property of the audited council, including where internal audit services are performed by an external provider – all rights reside with the audited council
- must be documented, retained and controlled in accordance with the International Professional Practices Framework and council policies
- can be accessed by the audit, risk and improvement committee and external auditor without restriction
- can be accessed by the governing body via resolution, subject to the approval of the chair of the committee (any disputes can be referred to the Office of Local Government for resolution)
- subject to the GIPA Act, can only be released to an external party with the approval of the general manager and the chair of the committee, except where the information is being provided to an external oversight or investigative body for the purposes of informing that agency of a matter that may warrant its attention.

Any internal audit documentation provided to any individual, including members of the governing body, should be treated as strictly confidential.

The chair of the audit, risk and improvement committee may refuse to provide access to internal audit documents or information to anyone who has previously released such information without authorisation.

Review of internal audit function performance

It is important that the work of each council's internal audit function is regularly assessed, and internal auditors held accountable for their performance.

This will ensure that the internal audit function is making a valuable contribution to the council and allows the audit, risk and improvement committee and the council to understand how the council is performing in relation to the matters listed in section 428A of the Local Government Act.

It will also ensure that the audit, risk and improvement committee and council can determine whether any changes to the internal audit function are required.

Annual assessment

The audit, risk and improvement committee must review the performance of the internal audit function each year and report its findings to the governing body as part of the committee's annual assessment.

The annual assessment is to ensure that any concerns regarding the operation of the internal audit function and compliance with the International Professional Practices Framework can be dealt with before they are identified in the four-yearly strategic review, by which time their consequences may have escalated.

An annual assessment will also encourage continuous improvement of the council's internal audit activity.

The audit, risk and improvement committee is to determine the nature of this assessment. It could be conducted, for example, via a self-assessment performed by the head of the internal audit function.

More information about the audit, risk and improvement committee's annual assessments is provided under core requirement 1.

Four-yearly strategic assessment

A council's audit, risk and improvement committee is to provide an assessment of the effectiveness of the council's internal audit function to the general manager and governing body in each term of the council, as part of the committee's four-yearly strategic assessment.

This assessment is to occur regardless of whether the council has established an in-house or outsourced internal audit function, as the assessment focuses on how the council has implemented its internal audit function.

As part of the audit, risk and improvement committee's assessment of the council's internal audit function, it should consider:

- the views of an independent external party with strong knowledge of internal audit operation
- the independence of the internal audit function
- whether resourcing is sufficient
- whether the internal audit function complies with statutory requirements and the International Professional Practices Framework
- the appropriateness of annual work plans and strategic plans based on the risks facing the council
- progress against key performance indicators
- whether the internal audit function adds value and delivers outcomes for the council, and
- the appropriateness of the internal audit charter.

To ensure the views of the external party consulted are robust, the external party should have:

- strong skills, knowledge and expertise in internal audit

- a working knowledge of the International Professional Practices Framework, and
- no conflicts of interest that may result in bias or a lack of objectivity.

The audit, risk and improvement committee, in consultation with the general manager, is to develop an action plan for the governing body to address any internal audit issues identified by the committee.

The audit, risk and improvement committee's strategic assessment and action plan is to be discussed with the governing body and general manager at the strategic assurance meeting held each council term.

More information about the audit, risk and improvement committee's strategic assessment is provided under core requirement 1.

Reporting concerns about councillors or council staff

Given the nature of internal audit, there may times where the internal audit function identifies concerns about the conduct of council staff.

Where the head of the internal audit function has concerns regarding a staff member, they can:

- raise their concerns with the chair of the audit, risk and improvement committee (if it relates to the effectiveness of the internal audit function)
- report breaches of the council's code of conduct to the general manager, or by the general manager to the Mayor, as required by the Procedures for the Administration of the Model Code of Conduct for Local Councils in NSW
- report their concerns through the council's internal reporting policy, complaints handling policy or other associated protocols, and/or

- make a public interest disclosure under the Public Interest Disclosures Act 1994 to the:
 - Independent Commission Against Corruption (concerning corrupt conduct)
 - NSW Ombudsman (concerning maladministration)
 - NSW Auditor General (concerning serious and substantial waste of public money)
 - Office of Local Government (concerning serious and substantial waste in local government and breaches of pecuniary interest obligations), and/or
 - Information and Privacy Commissioner (concerning government information contraventions).

Annual attestation

The Local Government Regulation (clause #abc) requires the general manager to attest each year in the council's annual report whether the council has complied with the following requirements:

- council has an internal audit function that provides an independent unbiased assessment of the council's operations and risk and control activities
- council's internal audit function reports to the audit, risk and improvement committee on internal audit matters
- the internal audit function operates independently of the council
- council's internal audit function operates according to an internal audit charter, which is consistent with the approved Model Internal Audit Charter contained in these guidelines
- council has appointed an appropriately skilled and eligible staff member to direct the council's internal audit activities or is part of a shared arrangement where a participating council has appointed a staff member to lead internal audit
- internal audit activities are conducted in accordance with the International Professional Practices Framework

- council's internal audit function operates according to annual and four-yearly strategic plans adopted by the governing body of the council
- council provides the internal audit function with direct and unrestricted access to the general manager and other staff, council information and resources so it can fulfil its responsibilities, and
- at least once each council term (i.e. four years) the audit, risk and improvement committee conducts a review of the effectiveness of the council's internal audit function.

Further information on annual attestation requirements are detailed in the statutory framework section of these Guidelines.

Further resources

The following resources may be useful to councils seeking more information about the establishment and operation of their internal audit function.

This is not an exhaustive list but provides a useful starting point for councils that seek to better understand internal audit, how it can be used by councils to improve performance, and practical tools, examples and templates to adapt for their own use.

International Professional Practices Framework (mandatory guidance) – Institute of Internal Auditors (2017)

Consists of four parts:

- Core Principles for the Professional Practice of Internal Auditing
- Definition of Internal Auditing
- Code of Ethics, and
- International Standards for the Professional Practice of Internal Auditing

International Professional Practices Framework (recommended guidance) – Institute of Internal Auditors (2017)

Provides detailed guidance on how to implement the International Professional Practice Framework.

Consists of two parts:

- Implementation Guide – assists an internal audit function to apply the standards and understand how compliance will be measured by the audit, risk and improvement committee, and
- Supplemental Guide (Practice Guides) – provides detailed processes and procedures for the internal audit function.

How can audit committee members add value? – PriceWaterhouseCoopers (2011)

Internal Audit in Australia – Institute of Internal Auditors Australia (2016)

Provides an overview of the role of internal audit and the internal audit function, including:

- the different types of work plans that can be used to guide internal audit activity
- the skills, knowledge, experience and qualifications/certifications required of internal auditors
- performing, reporting and monitoring internal audits, and
- how to review the performance of an internal audit function, including performance measures that could be used

Practice Guide – Talent Management: Recruiting, Developing, Motivating and Retaining Great Team Members – Institute of Internal Auditors (2015)

Quality Assessment Manual for the Internal Audit Activity – Institute of Internal Auditors (2017)

Outlines how the performance of council's internal audit function can be assessed both internally and externally against the International Professional Practices Framework.

Implementation

Under the Local Government Act, all councils and joint organisations are required to appoint an audit, risk and improvement committee by June 2022.

Following June 2022, councils will have two years, until 30 June 2024, to comply with the risk management and internal audit requirements under these Guidelines and five years to comply with the audit, risk and improvement committee requirements.

Audit, risk and improvement committees

New Committees

Councils that currently do not have an audit, risk and improvement committee must appoint a Committee by June 2022 that complies with the requirements of these Guidelines.

Existing Committees

Councils that already have an audit, risk and improvement committee will already comply with the requirement under the Local Government Act to appoint a committee.

These councils will have until June 2027 (five years) to ensure the membership of their committees comply with these guidelines.

Additional transition time is provided to allow the terms of existing audit, risk and improvement committee members that may not otherwise be eligible for membership of the committee under the new requirements, to naturally expire.

Staged compliance will provide greater stability in the membership of existing committees, ensure the retention of corporate knowledge on the committee, and reduce demand on the prequalification scheme.

Risk management framework

Councils have until 30 June 2024 to ensure their risk management framework complies with these guidelines.

However, councils that already have a mature risk management framework are encouraged, for their own benefit, to comply sooner.

Internal audit function

As a transitional measure, councils will have until 30 June 2024 to ensure their internal audit function complies with these guidelines.

However, councils that already have an internal audit function are encouraged, for their own benefit, to comply sooner.

Attestation

Attestation requirements will commence in 2024 for risk management and internal audit, and 2027 for audit, risk and improvement committees.

All councils will be required to publish their attestation certificates commencing with their 2024-2025 annual report.

However, councils with more mature audit, risk and improvement committees, internal audit function and/or risk management frameworks are encouraged to consider publishing attestation certificates in their annual reports sooner.

Model Terms of Reference for local government audit, risk and improvement committees

[Council/joint organisation] has established an audit, risk and improvement committee in compliance with section 428A of the Local Government Act 1993 and clauses (#tbc) of the Local Government (General) Regulation 2005. These terms of reference set out the Committee's objectives, authority, composition and tenure, roles and responsibilities, reporting and administrative arrangements.

Objective

The objective of [council's/joint organisation's] audit, risk and improvement committee is to provide independent assurance to [council/joint organisation] by monitoring, reviewing and providing advice about the [council's/joint organisation's] governance processes, compliance, risk management and control frameworks, external accountability obligations and overall performance.

Independence

The Committee is to be independent to ensure it has no real or perceived bias or conflicts of interest that may interfere with its ability to act independently and provide [council/joint organisation] with robust, objective and unbiased advice and assurance.

The Committee is to provide an advisory and assurance role only and is to have no administrative function, delegated financial responsibility or any management functions of the [council/joint organisation]. The Committee will provide independent advice to the [council/joint organisation] that is informed by the [council's/joint organisation's] internal audit and risk management activities and information and advice provided by [council staff/joint organisation], relevant external bodies and subject matter experts.

The Committee must at all times ensure it maintains a direct reporting line to and from the [council's/joint organisation's] internal audit function and act as a mechanism for internal audit to report to the [governing body/board] and [general manager/executive officer] on matters affecting the performance of the internal audit function.

Authority

[Council/joint organisation] authorises the Committee, for the purposes of exercising its role and responsibilities, to:

- access any information it needs from the [council/joint organisation]
- use any [council/joint organisation] resources it needs
- have direct and unrestricted access to the [general manager/executive officer] and senior management of the [council/joint organisation]
- seek the [general manager's/executive officer's] permission to meet with any other [council/joint organisation] staff member or contractor
- discuss any matters with the external auditor or other external parties
- request the attendance of any employee at committee meetings, and
- obtain external legal or other professional advice. [Detail any prior approval needed or pre-determined budget for costs].

Information and documents pertaining to the Committee are confidential and are not to be made publicly available. The Committee may only release [council/joint organisation] information to external parties that are assisting the Committee to fulfil its responsibilities with the approval of the [general manager/executive officer], except where it is being provided to an external investigative or oversight agency for the purpose of informing that agency of a matter that may warrant its attention. [change if documentation is to be made available to the public]

Composition and tenure

The Committee consists of [tier 1 – one independent prequalified voting Chair, two independent voting members and one non-voting councillor/board member] [tier 2 – one independent prequalified voting Chair, one independent prequalified voting member, one independent voting member and one non-voting councillor/board member] [tier 3 – one independent prequalified voting Chair, two independent prequalified voting members and one non-voting councillor member/board member], in accordance with the Guidelines for risk management and internal audit in local councils in NSW.

[If applicable - council/joint organisation has been granted an exemption by the Secretary of the Department of Planning, Industry and Environment from the requirement that the Chair of the Committee be prequalified under the NSW Government's Audit and Risk Committee Independent Chairs and Members Prequalification Scheme.]

The [governing body/board] is to appoint the Chair and members of the Committee. The Chair is counted as one member of the Committee. Current committee members are:

[name]	Independent chair (voting)
[name]	Independent member (voting)
[name]	Independent member (voting)
[name]	[Councillor/board] member (non-voting) (if applicable) [cannot be the mayor]

All committee members are to meet the independence and eligibility criteria prescribed in the Guidelines for risk management and internal audit in local councils in NSW.

Members will be appointed for a four-year period. Members can be reappointed for a further term, but the total period of continuous membership cannot exceed eight years. This includes any term as Chair of the Committee. Members who have served an eight-year term (either as member or Chair) must have a two-year break from serving on the Committee before being appointed again. To preserve the Committee's knowledge of [council/joint organisation], ideally, no more than one member should leave the Committee because of rotation on any one year.

Specific member terms and conditions are to be disclosed in a letter of appointment. New members will be thoroughly inducted to their role and receive relevant information and briefings on their appointment to assist them to meet their committee responsibilities.

Prior to approving the reappointment or extension of the Chair's or an independent member's term, the [governing body/board] is to undertake an assessment of the Chair's or committee member's performance. Reappointment of the Chair and members is also to be subject to the individual still meeting independence and eligibility requirements.

Members of the Committee are to possess and maintain a broad range of skills, knowledge and experience relevant to the operations, governance and financial management of [council/joint organisation], the environment in which [council/joint organisation] operates, and the contribution that the Committee makes to the [council/joint organisation]. At least one member of the Committee must have accounting or related financial management experience with an understanding of accounting and auditing standards in a local government environment. All members should have sufficient understanding of the [council's/joint organisation's] financial reporting responsibilities to be able to contribute to the Committee's consideration of the [council's/joint organisation's] annual financial statements.

Role

In accordance with section 428A of the Local Government Act 1993, the role of the Committee is to review and provide independent advice to the [council/joint organisation] regarding the following aspects of the [council's/joint organisation's] operations:

The Committee's specific audit, risk and improvement responsibilities under section 428A are outlined in Schedule 1 to this charter.

The Committee will act as a forum for the [council's/joint organisation's] internal audit function and oversee its planning, monitoring and reporting to ensure it operates effectively.

The Committee will have no power of direction over external audit or the manner in which the external audit is planned or undertaken but will act as a forum for the consideration of external audit findings.

The Committee is directly responsible and accountable to the [governing body of the council/board of the joint organisation] for the exercise of its responsibilities. In carrying out its responsibilities, the Committee must at all times recognise that primary responsibility for management of the [council/joint organisation] rests with the [governing body/board] and [general manager/executive officer].

The responsibilities of the Committee may be revised or expanded in consultation with, or as requested by, the [governing body of the council/board of the joint organisation] from time to time.

The [councillor/board] member of the Committee must conduct themselves in a non-partisan and professional manner. The [councillor/board] member of the Committee must not engage in any conduct that seeks to politicise the activities of the Committee or the internal audit function or that could be seen to do so.

If the [councillor/board] member of the Committee engages in such conduct or in any other conduct that may bring the Committee and its work into disrepute, the Chair of the Committee may recommend to the [council/joint organisation], that the [councillor/board] member be removed from membership of the Committee. Where the [council/joint organisation] does not agree to the Committee Chair's recommendation, the [council/joint organisation] must give reasons for its decision in writing to the Chair.

Prequalified Committee members are also required to comply with the code of conduct governing the NSW Government's Audit and Risk Committee Independent Chairs and Members Prequalification Scheme.

Conflicts of interest

Once a year, Committee members will provide written declarations to the [council/joint organisation] stating that they do not have any conflicts of interest that would preclude them from being members of the Committee. Independent committee members are 'designated persons' and must also complete and submit returns of interest.

Committee members and observers must declare any pecuniary or non-pecuniary conflicts of interest that may have at the start of each meeting, before discussion of the relevant agenda item or issue, and when the issue arises. Where committee members and observers are deemed to have a pecuniary or a significant non-pecuniary conflict of interest, they are to remove themselves from Committee deliberations on the issue. Details of any conflicts of interest should also be appropriately minuted.

Standards

Committee members are to conduct their work in accordance with the International Standards for the Professional Practice of Internal Auditing issued by the Institute of Internal Auditors and [current Australian risk management standard], where applicable.

Workplans

The work of the Committee is to be thoroughly planned and executed to ensure that all [council/joint organisation] activities and functions are reviewed. The Committee must develop a strategic plan every four years to ensure that all matters listed in Schedule 1 are reviewed by the Committee and the internal audit function over each [council/joint organisation] term. The strategic plan must be reviewed at least annually to ensure it remains appropriate.

The Committee may, in consultation with the [council's/joint organisation's] [governing body/board], vary the strategic work plan at any time to address new or emerging risks. The [governing body/board] of the [council/joint organisation] may also, by resolution, request the Committee to approve a variation to the strategic work plan. However, any decision to vary the strategic work plan must be made by the Committee.

The Committee must also develop an annual workplan to guide its work, and the work of the [name of internal audit function], over the forward year.

The Committee may, in consultation with the [council's/joint organisation's] governing body, vary the annual work plan to address new or emerging risks. The [governing body/board] of the [council/joint organisation] may also, by resolution, request the Committee to approve a variation to the annual work plan. However, any decision to vary the annual work plan must be made by the Committee.

When considering whether to vary the strategic or annual work plans, the Committee must consider the impact of the variation on the internal audit function's existing workload and the completion of pre-existing priorities and activities identified under the workplan.

Assurance reporting

The Committee must regularly report to the [council/joint organisation] to ensure that the [council/joint organisation] is kept informed of matters considered by the Committee and any emerging issues that may influence the strategic direction of the [council/joint organisation] or the achievement of the [council's/joint organisation's] goals and objectives.

The Committee will provide an update to the [governing body/board] and [general manager/executive officer] of its activities and opinions after every Committee meeting.

The Committee may at any time report to the [governing body/board] or [general manager/executive officer] on any other matter it deems of sufficient importance to warrant their attention. The Mayor and Chair of the Committee may also meet at any time to discuss issues relating to the work of the Committee.

Should the [governing body/board] require additional information, a request for the information may be made to the Chair by resolution. The Chair may only provide the information requested by the [governing body/board] where the Chair is satisfied that it is reasonably necessary for the [governing body/board] to receive the information for the purposes of performing its functions under the Local Government Act. Individual [councillors/board members] are not entitled to request or receive information from the Committee.

Minutes must be approved by the Chair and circulated within [agreed timeframe] of the meeting to each member.

Resignation and dismissal of members

Where the Chair or a Committee member is unable to complete their term, or does not intend to seek reappointment after the expiry of their term, they should give [agreed timeframe] notice to the Chair and [governing body/board] prior to their resignation to enable the [council/joint organisation] to ensure a smooth transition to a new committee member.

[Council/joint organisation] has established the [name of internal audit function] as a key component of the [council's/joint organisation's] governance and assurance framework and in compliance with the Guidelines for risk management and internal audit in local councils in NSW. Internal audit provides an independent and objective review and advisory service to provide advice to the [governing body/board], [general manager/executive officer] and audit, risk and improvement committee about the [council's/joint organisation's] governance processes, risk management and control frameworks and its external accountability obligations. It also assists the [council/joint organisation] to improve its business performance.

The audit, risk and improvement committee is responsible for communicating any internal audit issues or information to the [governing body/board]. Should the [governing body/board] require additional information, a request for the information may be made to the Chair by resolution. The Chair may only provide the information requested by the [governing body/board] where the Chair is satisfied that it is reasonably necessary for the [governing body/board] to receive the information for the purposes of performing its functions under the Local Government Act. Dear Sir/Madam

Submission - Draft Consultation Guidelines for the new Risk Management and Internal Audit Framework for Councils and Joint Organisations

Background

Council wishes to provide the following submission in relation to the Office of Local Government's (OLG) draft consultation guidelines for the new Risk Management and Internal Audit Framework for Councils and Joint Organisations.

Broken Hill City Council adopted an Audit Committee Charter on 26 June 2013 with the Audit Committee responsible for providing guidance to Council in relation to the following financial, governance and risk management operations:

1. Keep under review the effectiveness of the Council's internal controls and risk management systems;
2. Review and recommend the approval, where appropriate, of statements to be included in the Annual Report concerning internal controls and risk management
3. Review the effectiveness of the Council's fraud protection and protected disclosure procedures and systems

The Committee later evolved into the Audit, Risk and Improvement Committee due to the introduction of the Local Government Amendment (Governance and Planning) Bill 2016 (NSW). The Charter of the original Audit Committee and then later, the Audit, Risk and Improvement Committee has been reviewed and adopted by Council biennially with the last review adopted by Council on 29 September 2021.

Council management is committed to implementing all recommendations put forward to the Committee to enhance the performance of Council's operations, to ensure compliance with relevant Legislation and to improve the provision of services to the community.

Council's Audit, Risk and Improvement Committee workshopped the draft consultation guidelines at its meetings held 20 October 2021 and 18 November 2021 and Council endorsed the Committee's position in relation to the draft guidelines at its Ordinary Monthly Meeting held 24 November 2021 (Minute Number XXXX).

- o Overseeing and reviewing staff performance surveys and community satisfaction surveys and the implementation of any recommended improvements arising.
- Concern that the draft guidelines for membership for Audit, Risk and Improvement Committees of a Tier 2 Council refers to only one Councillor as a non-voting member.
 - o The membership of Broken Hill City Council's current Audit, Risk and Improvement Committee comprises of three (3) Councillors. Having three Councillors balances the Committee between independent members, external auditors, internal auditors, Councillors and Council staff and allows for Councillor representation at all meetings if there are any absences due to other meeting commitments.
- The importance of the inclusion of a number of Councillors as members of the Committee due to the knowledge that Councillors bring as they are across the issues that Council faces on a daily basis and are also across issues relating to the community and the services Council provides to the community.
- All Councillors should be encouraged to attend Audit, Risk and Improvement Committee Meetings to understand the focus and direction of the Committee.
- The importance of a training/induction program for all new members of the Audit, Risk and Improvement Committee including Councillor members, to allow new members to have an adequate knowledge of financial statements and auditing requirements, risk management principles, internal audits, service reviews and Council's Integrated Planning and Reporting functions in order that they can actively contribute to the Committee.
- Council agrees with the responsibilities of the Committee as outlined in the Office of Local Government draft Model Terms of Reference for Audit, Risk and Improvement Committees and welcomes the new responsibility of overseeing the implementation of the Community Strategic Plan, Delivery Program and associated strategies (of which Council's Audit, Risk and Improvement Committee already oversee).

Thank you for the opportunity to provide Council's submission regarding the draft consultation Guidelines for the new Risk Management and Internal Audit Framework for Councils and Joint Organisations. I look forward to hearing the views of other Councils in NSW in relation to this matter, and to receiving the finalised guidelines from the Office of Local Government in due course.

Yours faithfully

GENERAL MANAGER'S BRIEFING

The General Manager advised that since the last Audit, Risk and Improvement Committee Meeting, Council has adopted a new organisation structure. An organisational realignment was required to bolster the Executive Leadership Team (ELT) and recruitment is underway for two ELT positions (Chief Strategic Financial Officer and Chief Assets and Projects Officer) along with an Executive Manager positions which will form the new ELT. The recruitment process has commenced for these positions and they should hopefully be filled in the coming weeks. Formulating the Position Descriptions for these new positions has taken up a lot of time over the last few weeks plus last week saw the escalation of the spread of the Delta variant of the Corona Virus into Western NSW and now Far Western NSW. Council has ramped up its Continuity Management Plan and stood up the Continuity Management Team across all service wings of Council. The essential services of Council are operating, the majority of Administration staff are working from home, with only essential finance and IT members operating from the building. Some staff in outdoor areas can continue to work as normal; some have been redeployed to Council's cleaning team to provide a greater cleaning/sanitisation response across Council's facilities; and some staff across the organisation have chosen to take annual leave.

Broken Hill has not been under lockdown/stay at home orders during the COVID-19 pandemic before last weekend and teams have collaborated together and performed extremely well, to the change to working arrangements.

The General Manager acknowledged the work of Council's Risk Team, and in particular the Corporate Risk Coordinator and Workplace Health and Safety Officer, over the last 12-18 months in developing and refining Council's emergency plans and procedures which has ensured we are in a good place to be prepared for COVID cases in Broken Hill. It has ensured a smooth and effective response by Council.

Council also plays a planning role on the Local Emergency Management Committee, along with the local Police and the Far West Local Health District, working through their emergency plans to ensure essential services continue; that the movement continues unimpeded of essential food and other essential supplies to Broken Hill and the surrounding region; the planning of community testing and vaccination operation; community messaging and enforcement of the Stay at Home Public Health Order.

Following questions from Committee Members, the General Manager further advised that:

- As at today, there is 1 positive COVID-19 case in Broken Hill and 3 positive cases in Wilcannia. It is expected that the cases will increase in the coming days.*
- Council Continuity Management Team is working well in guiding and managing their teams in changed working arrangements during the Stay at Home Public Health Order.*
- Council will inevitably see a loss in revenue due to the closure of some Council facilities and services, especially Airport revenue.*
- 95% of office staff are working from home and some outdoor staff can continue working (within the Public Health Order requirements). Some staff have opted to take annual leave.*
- The train service into the City is being reviewed and flights are limited to only a couple of flights per week. The daily community bus from Wilcannia to Broken Hill return each day will also have increased compliance monitoring to limit movement between the towns, with arrangements made for essential food and medical supplies to be delivered to Wilcannia.*

Councillor Gallagher and Councillor Nolan commended the General Manager and the Corporate Risk Officer and Risk Team for their work in refining the Continuity Management Plan which has been instrumental in Council's efficient response to the current Delta variant outbreak in the City and Far West region. They acknowledged the General Manager's leadership during this crisis, in Council's preparedness to quickly respond to changes in operations and for keeping Councillors up-to-date through regular informative communications.

The Chairperson agreed with the acknowledgement of the General Manager and the Corporate Risk Officer and Risk Team in the work that they had undertaken to ensure Council's preparedness in an emergency situation and also acknowledged the Mayor for her messaging to the community via ABC radio and television.

AUDIT, RISK AND IMPROVEMENT COMMITTEE

19 AUGUST 2021

ITEM 1 - BROKEN HILL CITY COUNCIL REPORT NO. 13/21 - DATED MAY 18, 2021 - AUDIT RISK AND IMPROVEMENT COMMITTEE CHARTER 13/19

The Chairperson advised that the Office of Local Government (OLG) should by now have received submissions from NSW Councils regarding the proposed changes to the Audit Risk and Improvement Committee Charter, but that they have not released a new Charter at this stage. This may be delayed until after the Local Government elections in December 2021. It is expected that the major changes will be to the qualifications required for independent membership on the Committees.

The General Manager also confirmed that Council has not received any official notice of amendments to the Audit, Risk and Improvement Committee Charter from OLG, and that Council will seek further clarification regarding the expected timeframe that notice will be provided to Councils.

Due to the delay in notice from the Office of Local Government, the Chairperson recommended the Committee endorses the current Charter to be presented to Council for adoption.

Recommendation

Moved Mayor Darriea Turley, Seconded Councillor Jim Nolan

1. That Broken Hill City Council Report No. 13/21 dated May 18, 2021, be received.
2. That the Audit Risk and Improvement Committee review its charter.
3. That the Audit Risk and Improvement Committee Charter is presented to Council for final adoption.

CARRIED

ITEM 2 - BROKEN HILL CITY COUNCIL REPORT NO. 14/21 - DATED AUGUST 10, 2021 - AUDIT OFFICE OF NEW SOUTH WALES - ANNUAL WORK PROGRAM 2021-24 11/26

Mr Moncada advised the Committee that it was pleasing to see the NSW Audit Office's Annual Work Program included in the Business Paper for the Audit, Risk and Improvement Committee as the Work Program shows the focus for the next 3-4 years which will build on work already undertaken by the Audit Office. The Work Program will have a continued focus on the use of public money and to ascertain the adequacy of the financial reporting control frameworks of Councils.

The Audit Office will conduct financial and performance audits on all NSW Councils regarding the impact and affects of natural disasters on the local government sector, in particular the COVID-19 pandemic and the 2019-20 bush fires and floods.

The audit will look at areas such as government response, government recovery, appropriate governance controls for the use of government grants etc, and the increasing financial risk to Councils.

Mr Moncada also advised that another area of risk facing all Councils is that of cyber security and a performance audit will be undertaken across NSW Councils regarding cyber security elements such as tech know-how, IT resources, IT controls and IT controls managed by service providers.

The Chairperson advised that the Committee had tasked OCM to conduct an internal audit on cyber security as part of Council's internal audit plan.

AUDIT, RISK AND IMPROVEMENT COMMITTEE

19 AUGUST 2021

Mr Moncada advised the Committee that the NSW Audit Office had published the Report on Local Government 2020 dated 27 May 2021. The report highlights that unqualified audit opinions were issued for 127 councils, 9 county councils and 13 joint organisations for their 2019/2020 audits and that one qualified audit opinion was issued for Central Coast Council. This report is available on the NSW Audit Office website for viewing.

Recommendation

Moved Mayor Darriea Turley, Seconded Councillor Dave Gallagher

1. That Broken Hill City Council Report No. 14/21 dated August 10, 2021, be received.

ITEM 3 - BROKEN HILL CITY COUNCIL REPORT NO. 15/21 - DATED AUGUST 10, 2021 - INTERNAL AUDIT - PROGRESS REPORT

18/142

Mr Marsden thanked Council for engaging their firm for the conduct of internal audit functions for another year. Mr Marsden advised that he will not be involved in further Broken Hill City Council audits due to their company rotation of auditors and advised that Ms Judy Malpas will be accompanied by a new Senior Partner for future internal audit activities. He thanked Council for taking internal audits and service improvement seriously, for implementing audit recommendations and for challenging OCM to make audit findings relevant.

Ms Malpas advised that the 2020/2021 internal audit program was complete and that the 2021/2022 audit program had commenced. The field work has finished for the first internal audit into Event Management and a report for review has been forwarded to Council. Due to the COVID-19 travel restrictions they have had to split the next internal audit on Cemetery Compliance as an onsite visit has been re-scheduled to quarter three and therefore will be working on the Financial Health Check internal audit in quarter two.

Ms Malpas spoke about the internal audit conducted into Council's Project Management operations which outlined two moderate issues (of which included a number of minor issues). The two moderate issues were in the areas of the project management framework and project management processes.

Ms Malpas referred to the templates that Council has created for use, which are mostly adequate and will do the job well. Sample testing of the project management processes revealed some issues of non-compliance in the six key stages of project management, the lack of business cases and documentation not uploaded to Council's electronic management system.

The Mayor expressed concerns at the audit findings and the General Manager advised that the internal audit process looked back over a few years of infrastructure projects. Since these projects were finalised, Council's Infrastructure Projects Team has done a considerable amount of work to improve policies and processes. They have come so far, but there is still work to do in this area.

The Chairperson asked Ms Malpas if she was happy with Council's timeframe for improvements in the Project Management processes. Ms Malpas said that Council needs to consider other work pressures due to the COVID-19 pandemic and that to do it right will require time to implement changes. Mr Marsden advised that some improvements to processes have already been undertaken by Council.

Mr Pulgies sought commentary around the status of an item on the Internal Audit Status Tracker regarding cyber security processes as the commentary was missing. The Acting Chief Financial Officer advised that the draft Cyber Security Framework was endorsed by Council and placed on public exhibition which closed on 30 July 2021. The draft Framework is being presented to the August 2021 Council Meeting for adoption.

AUDIT, RISK AND IMPROVEMENT COMMITTEE

19 AUGUST 2021

The General Manager advised that a position description has been completed for an IT/Cyber Security Officer position. Unfortunately due to the impacts of COVID-19 on Council's Human Resources Team, the position has not yet been advertised. It is classed as a priority position and will be advertised as soon as resources allow.

The Chairperson thanked O'Connor Marsden for their work in fulfilling the role of Council's internal auditors and for the completed audits undertaken thus far.

Ms Malpas advised that OCM are planning to conduct a Cyber Security Webinar in last October; and that invitations will be extended to all Audit, Risk and Improvement Committee Members to attend.

Recommendation

Moved Councillor Dave Gallagher, Seconded Mr Jim Mitchell

1. That Broken Hill City Council Report No. 15/21 dated August 10, 2021, be received.
2. That the Audit, Risk & Improvement Committee note the final internal audit report on Project Management.
3. That the Audit, Risk & Improvement Committee note the progress made on previous internal audit action items.

ITEM 4 - BROKEN HILL CITY COUNCIL REPORT NO. 16/21 - DATED AUGUST 10, 2021 -
EXTERNAL AUDIT - INTERIM MANAGEMENT LETTER

Mr Brett Hangar of Nexia spoke about the Interim Management Letter issued to Council earlier this month. There were two items from the last Management Letter which have been completed and there were no new matters in the current year, which is a very pleasing result.

Mr Hangar advised that the year-end audit will be conducted remotely and that he is confident that the original timeframe for the audit can be achieved. The audit will commence on 6 September 2021 with the draft financial statements due to be provided to Nexia by 31 August 2021.

Following a query from the Chairperson regarding whether Council can meet the timeframe of 31 August for provision of the draft financial statements given that the majority of Council's finance staff are working from home, the Acting Chief Financial Officer advised that there are some challenges. As some staff are working from home, and some staff working in the Administration Building due to the necessity to have teams split as a business continuity measure and also due to a couple of software programs require staff on-site. The team are enthusiastic, they have a "can do" attitude and morale is high, and they are confident that the timeframes will be achieved.

The Chairperson thanked Mr Hangar for his work and look forward to his report to the next Audit, Risk and Improvement Committee Meeting.

Recommendation

Moved Mr Jim Mitchell, Seconded Mayor Darriea Turley

1. That Broken Hill City Council Report No. 16/21 dated August 10, 2021, be received.

ITEM 5 - BROKEN HILL CITY COUNCIL REPORT NO. 17/21 - DATED AUGUST 10, 2021 -
ENTERPRISE RISK MANAGEMENT POLICY AND FRAMEWORK REVIEW PROJECT REPORT

Council's Corporate Risk Coordinator Mr Scott Howe spoke to his report advising that Council's risk management response to the COVID-19 pandemic was in action and Council's Business Continuity Plan has been enacted due to the Stay at Home Public Health Order imposed on the state of NSW as a result of the spread of the Delta variant of the COVID-19 virus.

The Business Continuity Plan is standing up well and it has been a smooth process setting up the majority of Administration Building staff to work from home and redeploying some staff who have been impacted by the closure of Council services to the public, to other work teams who currently have an increase workload. The current situation will be utilised to test the Plan and build systems when we come out of the COVID-19 pandemic and back to normal working arrangements.

The Mayor enquired if any issues had been identified with the enactment of the Business Continuity Plan that needed improvement? The General Manager advised that there were no issues identified at this stage and that the Plan will be reviewed once Broken Hill is back to zero positive COVID-19 cases with the outcome of the review to be included in the next report to the Audit, Risk and Improvement Committee.

Recommendation

Moved Mr Jim Mitchell, Seconded Councillor Dave Gallagher

That the Enterprise Risk Management Policy and Framework Review Report dated August 10, 2021, be received.

That the Audit, Risk and Improvement Committee received and noted the two confidential attachments to the report which were considered during the confidential part of the meeting.

ITEM 6 - BROKEN HILL CITY COUNCIL REPORT NO. 19/21 - DATED AUGUST 10, 2021 -
REALIGNMENT OF COUNCIL'S ORGANISATION STRUCTURE AND APPOINTMENT OF SENIOR STAFF POSITIONS

The General Manager advised that Council's new organisation structure has been approved by Council, Council's union representatives and the Employee Consultative Committee.

There was no need for a major restructure of the organisation, more of a minor realignment of the Executive Leadership Team (ELT) to increase diversification across teams. There was also an emphasis on a member of the People and Culture Team to be part of ELT. A need was also identified to bolster the Economic Development Team as there will be an increased emphasis on Broken Hill's economy after the COVID-19 pandemic.

Recruitment of two new "Chief" positions is currently underway, these positions are part of the Executive Leadership Team and should hopefully be onboard to be introduced to the Committee at the November/December Meeting.

Following a question about Council staff vaccination rates, the General Manager advised that a staff survey was conducted this week which indicates that there are over 60% of staff fully vaccinated, approximately 15% have had their first dose with the remainder keen to be vaccinated and are awaiting the opportunity.

ITEM 7 - BROKEN HILL CITY COUNCIL REPORT NO. 20/21 - DATED AUGUST 11, 2021 -
ANNUAL LEAVE AND LONG SERVICE LEAVE EARLY WARNING REPORT AS AT AUGUST 2021 13/19

The General Manager advised that work is ongoing in an effort to decrease Council's staff leave liabilities. Once a number of key vacant positions are filled this should alleviate the pressure on some staff who can then take leave. Also the upcoming mandatory Christmas Shutdown period will see all staff take 2 weeks leave. Council has also offered the opportunity to staff with large leave balances that they can cash out leave, this is also being monitored from a WHS perspective.

Moved Mr Jim Mitchell, Seconded Councillor Dave Gallagher

The General Manager advised that Council had not received any submissions from the public regarding these two draft documents and that they will be presented unchanged to Council for adoption.

The Chairperson advised the Committee that the term of the independent members on the Committee is for the term of Council and therefore will end at the 4 December 2021 Local Government Elections. It may be at this time at the OLG will announce the new Charter for Audit, Risk and Improvement Committees. The next term for the independent members will align with the new term of Council being for two years and nine months.

budgeting in a changing environment. The Acting Chief Financial Officer thanked the Finance Team for their work in preparing the financial statements, stating their improvements as a Team was evident in the quality of the statements presented for audit.

Mr Pulgies referred to page 41 (C14) receivable amount and asked if it represented all contingencies for legal matters or if other amounts were shown elsewhere in the statements? The Acting Chief Financial Officer advised that the amount relating to legal settlement is likely to be unrecoverable with regards to one of the capital projects.

Following another question from Mr Pulgies, the Acting Chief Financial Officer confirmed that the matter highlighted on page 61 (C35) has been actioned.

The Chairperson noted that the financial statements presented are in the standard format for NSW Councils and discussion took place around the depreciable value of Council's assets with the Committee noting the comments provided in the statements.

The reduced operating revenue of the Airport and Civic Centre was also noted due to impacts of the COVID-19 pandemic.

The Chairperson requested corrections the financial statements to references to the Far South West Joint Organisation to show "South West" as two words.

Mr Moncada thanked the General Manager, Acting Chief Financial Officer, Management and Finance Team for the cooperation given to the NSW Audit Office throughout the audit process. Although the audit was carried out remotely, the process went well. Mr Moncada was pleased to advise that the audit showed a largely positive result. The financial statements are currently in draft with only one minor matter to be resolved. Once finalised, it is expected that the NSW Audit Office will issue Council with an unqualified position on all schedules within the statutory timeframe of 30 October 2021.

Mr Brett Hangar referred to section 3.1 of the Closing Report which is included in the draft statements advising that it is likely that unqualified audit positions are due to be issued once the signed financial statements and the management representation letters are received. Mr Hangar confirmed that the one minor matter outstanding referred to the acquittal of Roads to Recovery Infrastructure program funding, and that this matter is expected to be finalised this week.

Mr Hangar was pleased to note that there were no new issues identified during the audit; and that two issues raised in previous years have been completely resolved. And is satisfied that the three issues that have been re-raised and remain unresolved in this audit, are being addressed by Council with the development of frameworks, policies and procedures. No misstatements were identified in the financial statements (only minor formatting corrections were required).

Mr Hangar referred to the previous Committee meeting regarding the Audit Annual Engagement Plan where the Committee discussed the issues facing the Local Government industry as a whole. These are included at Section 4 of the Closing Report which refers to the six issues being:

- 1. Impact of COVID-19 pandemic.*
- 2. Assessing the fair value of Council's infrastructure, property, plant and equipment.*
- 3. Quality and timeliness of financial reporting.*
- 4. Revaluation of infrastructure, property, plant and equipment.*
- 5. Information Technology General Controls.*
- 6. Cyber security.*

Mr Hangar thanked Council's Acting Chief Financial Officer and the Finance Team for their assistance during the audit process.

The Acting Chief Financial Officer advised that in regards to the timeliness of the audit, a review will be undertaken of the Finance Team's performance to look at any further improvements that can be made to ensure that the statements are presented on time or early next year. It was noted that the statements were delayed by approximately 3-4 days. Following a query from the Mayor, the Acting Chief Financial Officer confirmed the preparation of the Far South West Joint Organisation's financial statements had impacted on the timeliness of the audit.

The Chairperson thanked the Auditors and congratulated Council's staff involved in the audit process, acknowledging that an audit is a challenging process and this year it was even more challenging given the current Stay-at-Home Public Health Order requiring everyone to work from home.

OFFICE OF LOCAL GOVERNMENT CONSULTATION DRAFT GUIDELINES FOR NEW RISK MANAGEMENT AND INTERNAL AUDIT FRAMEWORK FOR COUNCIL AND JOINT

The Committee agreed that Council is well in front of other NSW Councils having operated an Audit Committee since 2013 with the Committee evolving into the current Audit, Risk and Improvement Committee due to the introduction of the Local Government Amendment (Governance and Planning) Framework 2016. The transitional provisions of the Framework stipulates that all NSW Councils and Joint Organisations must have either appointed an Audit, Risk and Improvement Committee or entered into an arrangement with another Council or Joint Organisation to share an Audit, Risk and Improvement Committee by 4 June 2022.

The Committee discussed the OLG consultation draft guidelines and in particular the OLG summary guide.

It was agreed that Council's submission should cover the following key points:

- Council has been successfully operating an Audit Committee since 2013 which evolved into the current Audit, Risk and Improvement Committee operating as per the sections 428A of the Local Government Act 1993.
- Concern that the draft guidelines for membership for Audit, Risk and Improvement Committees of a Tier 2 Council refers to only one Councillor as a non-voting member.
- The importance of the inclusion of a number of Councillors as members of the Committee due to the knowledge that Councillors bring as they are across the issues that Council faces on a day to day basis and are also across issues relating to the community and the services Council provides to the community.
- All Councillors should be encouraged to attend Audit, Risk and Improvement Committee Meetings to understand the focus and direction of the Committee.
- The importance of a training/induction program for all new members of the Audit, Risk & Improvement Committee including Councillor members.
- Agrees with the responsibilities of the Committee as outlined in the OLG draft Model Terms of
